

INT. Space ship, deep space, day or night

Someone is holding a camera, recording William, who is walking down hallway in Supremes spaceship

William

How do I look like?

Eddy

Fine...

William

What are you doing there? Record my left side, no stay where you are, actually go in front of me, take a picture of my whole face, to see my beauty clearly

Camera is now in front of William and cameraman is walking backwards

William

Dear fans and my friends welcome to Supremes ship, this is the place where...

The cameraman stumbles and falls on his back, drops the camera to the ground and we see young Eddy lying down, and William's legs approach him.

William

Are you stupid? Look where you're going...

Eddy

How can I look where I'm going when I'm going backwards, and I'm looking at you?

William

Stand up and record my left side, when you're incompetent ... I better give Meep a camera to film me

Eddy stands up, takes the camera and starts following William

William

As you can see, this is the place where everything begins, every mission, every call for help, starts here, Meep lets them on the speakers that are placed all over the ship and I as the leader of this team, knock on the door of our fresh married couple...

William opens the door and catches Marcus and Gertude mid sex

William

Holly fucking shit, can you two last an hour without fucking?

Gertude throws a table lamp that hits the wall next to William

Marcus

Stop entering our room without knocking!

William

Lock the damn door for a change and I won't come in when you two fuck

William closed the door and shakes his head.

William

Marcus is a religious person, he didn't have sex until he got married, now that he felt what an experience it is, he doesn't take off Gertude, they have sex day and night, aggressive, the whole ship is shaking, once we ran into an asteroid rain, we barely survived because the two of them were horny, the ship went left-right, up-down, and besides all that, we heard Marcus screaming, I don't know what they were doing inside, but I'm curious

Marcus run past William

Meep

We are here, prepare for the mission

William

Meep, can you tell that to Gertude and Marcus

Meep

Sure thing William, I will be glad to inform them

William is smiling

Meep

O my dear fish lord

Gertude

Meep! Get out please

Meep stands next to William

Meep

I've seen things I don't understand, but I believe they made offspring, I'm going to wash my eyes

William laughs out loud as Meep leaves, and then he started walking down the hallway and enters the room where his armor is, we don't see him changing, but he throws socks and pants over the curtain

William

I like to put him in awkward situations, he is so cute ... But he is a poor man from the planet where in his teenage years, his genitals were cut off, they believe that this way they prevent the spread of sexually transmitted diseases, when he turned 14 on their planet, they sent him hospital for two weeks, where every day, several times a day he jerked off to leave the seeds for artificial insemination and then they cut off his little pride, the poor fish never felt what real passion is

William walks out, in his uniform

William

And now it's time to embark on a mission, as I understand it some witch wants to steal the energy that keeps this planet alive, a classic Thursday

Eddy

Will I go with you this time? I don't have to fight, I'll stand by and film you, for a documentary, I won't bother you at all

William

Well yes, I think you deserve it, I mean, you've been on the ship for three years, I think it's time to go on a mission with us

Really!?

William

Just give me the camera and get ready

Eddy

Thank you so much William, you are not aware of how much this means to me, I have been training every day for this moment

Eddy gives his camera to William and as soon as William landed his hands on it, he run off and locked the door before Eddy could get out

William

I can't believe you're so stupid, this is the third time you've fallen for the same trick, and now sit here and wait until we get back

Camera cuts

ENT. Alien planet (Eurga), night

The camera falls from the sky, while William is heard screaming, the camera hits the ground and we see the injured Marcus, Meep and Gertude, William's legs are in the frame.

The ground begins to separate and a green light emerges from it.

William

Gertude!

The camera stays where it is, while William flies past Marcus and Meep, hugs Gertude and flies off into space with her.

He left us ... he left us!

Meep

Marcus, the engines with which we landed from the ship

Marcus changes his form into the humanoid Tiger, Meep jumps on his back and Marcus runs towards a smaller spaceship, the ground behind them disintegrates and sinks, the two of them jump into a smaller ship, Meep turns on the engine, but the ground below them disintegrates, the ship falls into abyss, but manages to take off and return to the main ship, behind them, William and Gertude enter.

We now see from Williams camera which is on his armor, Marcus walks towards him, he is angry

You left us there to die! The captain never leaves his crew

William

I saved Gertude, leave me alone, I am not proud of what happened

Marcus

You could have saved Meep or me, we were close to you, but you decided to save Gertude, who was the furthest

William

And she was closest to the explosion

Gertude

Marcus, will you stop, we failed, and many people lost their lives

Marcus

Why are you defending him? Why? What's the matter between you?!

Gertude

Shut up! Shut up! Shut up!

Gertude clings to her head, but no one pays attention to her, everyone is focused on fight between Marcus and William

William

Dude, calm down, there's nothing between us, we're just friends

Just friends huh?

INT. Television studio, day

The screen behind the News host shows the footage we just watched, the news host turns to the camera

News host

Exactly ten years have passed since the incident on the now destroyed planet Eurga, when the Supremes miserably failed to protect us.

News host

With us today is their former sidekick you saw in the video, Eddy

Edward

It's Edward, and...

News host

Tell me "Edward", you were there when it happened, what exactly was going through your head as you watched their arrogance destroy life in that part of the universe

Edward

I can't remember exactly, both for everyone and for me, it was a big shock, the first thing that came to my mind was to call the intergalactic police to send rescue teams

News host

Yes, right, because the actions of your former associates led to the destruction of the entire planet, causing disruption to the surrounding planets, the four planets became uninhabitable and the intergalactic organization had to migrate them to the surrounding planets, is that right "Edward"

Edward

Ok, listen to me here, before you continue, firstly, you say my name as if you were making fun of it, which is childish, secondly Supremes saved lives for years before that accident, they worked non-stop, what happened to Eurga, no one could not predict ...

News host

It was very irresponsible of the Supremes to jump into a fight they are not ready for, the footage shows that they took the problem lightly.

News host

Are they still on the run?

Edward

I will say again, they were the best fighters the Intergalactic Alliance could provide at the time, so they were on the team

News host

Obviously they were not good enough, someone needed to teach them discipline...

Edward

Let me ask you something, compare the situation that happened to you three years ago, when your colleague was killed while you two were drunk, causing problems at the club, congratulations on getting off alcohol and drugs by the way, now compare you and Supremes. See what the difference is? No? I'll tell you, they had the courage to oppose and stayed there until the very end, while you acted like a coward.

News host

There is no need to mention that

Edward

You are right, you barely recovered from it financially, don't worry, I won't go into whether you got permission to see the children.

Edward

Most of the Supremes were shitty people, but they were good at their job, that is all I have to say about that topic

News host

That's all we had to talk about, thank you for agreeing to be a guest on the show

Edward

Anytime, we had nice conversation, we can always continue the conversation, if necessary (He especially emphasized "if necessary")

The cameras turn off and Edward gets up from the table, the news host grabs him by the shoulder

Are you fucking crazy, what are you talking about during the show!?

Edward hits the news host in the stomach with his elbow, then grabs his jaw with his hand, lifts him into the air and throws him on the table, breaking it

Edward

Not a nice feeling when someone talks shit about you, isn't it?

News host gets up from the ground, tries to hit Edward, but he stumbles, knocks him to the ground and puts the gun to the tip of his head.

Edward

I could spill your brain on the floor now and I wouldn't be responsible for it

News host

No! Please don't! I'm sorry, I'm really sorry

Edward falls on his back, starts laughing hysterically and rolls on the floor, the news host watches him, but is too scared to get up

Edward

Idiot, of course I would be responsible if I killed you, you think I would lose the opportunity to become a unit captain because of scoundrels like you

Edward starts to go out, everyone looks at him in fear, and he turns at the door, shows his middle fingers to the news host

Edward

Fuck you, and fuck all your superiors, I know what you wanted, to get me to say something wrong and ruin my chance for promotion, I'm a fucking untouchable motherfuckers

INT. space bar, night

Edward is sitting alone, at the bar table, there is loud music around him, but he does not pay attention, the waitress puts him a big glass with some dark red drink, possibly alcohol, he takes a pill out of his pocket and puts it in the drink, then drinks a whole glass and burps loudly, the whole cafe stops for a second, the music stops, everyone turns to him and after a second of silence, everyone raises their glasses and says "Ahoy" with big smiles on their faces, as if toasting, Edward does the same, but with a tired expression, the music starts again and everyone continues on.

Edward grabs his left arm as he tightens in pain, raises his sleeve and his scar glows green, he quickly lowers his sleeve over scar, hiding it

Edward

What the fuck! How!?

An older man in the same uniform as Edwards, sitting at his desk

Samuel

I thought I'd find you here

Edward

Sir, nice to see you, but I wish I was alone now

Samuel

You know we got a report against you, you just made an incident today, if you want to get a promotion, you have to...

Edward

I understand you sir, I'm a real fool for you to do this, excuse me now, I'm going to regret my actions alone, and we'll talk tomorrow

Edward quickly gets up from the table and runs to the back exit.

Near the exit she collided with a waitress, who was pink and had four tentacles protruding from her back.

Edward

Galahalahala, I'm glad I ran into you, I can only trust you, I need your service, I have a feeling his chest is burning, I'm breathing hard, I'm sweating, I'm shaking, look

Galahalahala

What are you talking about, Edward?

Edward

Galahalahala, I need a favor from you, I'm ashamed to ask you this, please stay between us, and I need you to turn me on

Galahalahala

Don't say anything more Edward, I've noticed you looking at me for a while, let's meet behind

ENT. Dark ally, night

Galahalahala walks out of bar and enters the dark ally, she calls for Edward and sees Edward hiding behind trash

Edward

Galahalahala I will never be able to thank you enough for this, and once again I beg you to keep this between us

Galahalahala

Don't worry, Galahalahala knows how to keep a secret, why are you nervous

Edward

O Galahalahala, I'll be honest, this is my first time doing this, and I haven't had a chance to test it

Galahalahala

What!? I mean it's sweet, I'm honored you chose me to be your first, just relax, I'll make sure you're nice

Edward

Thank you Galahalahala, now take this taser, and strike me when I go down, strike hard Galahalahala, without mercy

Galahalahala

Ooh, you have a dirty mind Edward, you must have piled up ideas, but don't worry if it doesn't last long

Edward

I hope it doesn't take longer than a few seconds

Galahalahala

It should take a minimum of a few minutes

Edward

Are you crazy Galahalahala? That would really kill me, my heart would not handle it

Galahalahala

Okay, since it's your first time, I'll adapt to you, but you have to use protection

Edward

No time, turning my heart and 3, 2, 1

Galahalahala

You do what?!

Edward gets a heart attack and falls to the ground, with his eyes wide open, Galahalahala jumps over him and yells "No, you didn't do the job!" Hits him with a taser and brings him back to life.

One drunk person walks out and see's just Edward's legs and Galahalahala sitting on him, he came out the moment Edward was taking a breath.

Edward looks at his scar that is no longer glowing

Edward

O, Galahalahala, as if I were reborn, you are a miracle worker, thank you, thank you, I will never forget this

Galahalahala

I don't know from whom did you see this, but this is not done like this at all, we didn't even have a foreplay

Edward

This was fucking amazing, we have to do it again sometime, soon I hope

Edward kisses Galahalahala in the forehead and runs to the main street where his vehicle is parked and drives away with a smile on his face. All this time we see Galahalahala confused in background. Man, who was watching them, approaches her

Man

Can you do the same to me as you do to him, I'm not asking how much it costs

Galahalahala slaps him and returns to bar

This fucking feminism, you can't even hire a whore like you used to ENT. Unknown planet, day

Forest on fire, green fire spreads rapidly, covering almost the entire forest. From dark blue trees, through thick smoke and fire, black birds, like ravens, fly away from danger, strange creatures, like bulls, with visible burns, are trying to leave the forest, but the burning trees fall to the ground and capture them until the fire swallows them.

A man, about thirty years old, runs through the flames, jumps over fallen trees, his coat burns, but he does not stop, he has a frightened expression on his face. He finally ran out of the woods, by the lake, he was breathing hard, fell to his knees and took water to wash his face, he sobbed in pain, unbuttoned his shirt and on the right side of his chest a strange scar was seen, which began to glow green.

Bloody Hell, how is this possible...

Marcus stands up, he looks around, but no one was there

Come on, coward, show yourself, I know you're here!

A strange sound is heard, as if someone were cutting through the air, Marcus turns and sees a rectangular passage, which was created out of nowhere, it led to a room filled with technology, large monitors on the walls, holographic representations of the planets in the galaxy 2 ...

Marcus took a step back, clenched his fists, as if preparing to fight. But he loosened his fists and abruptly changed his expression when he saw who came out of the portal. A tall man (Edward), about 20-25 years old, stood in front of him, with a calm expression on his face, after a few seconds of silence, he decides to break the silence

Let's go

He said sharply, keeping his expression and not moving at all, he stood still, unlike Marcus, whose feelings were mixed, he did not know how to react at that moment

Marcus

Eddy?

Edward

It's Edward now, Marcus, hurry, I don't have time to waste on you Edward interrupted Marcus and went back in the portal

Edward

You can come with me, or you can wait for her here, I don't care anyways, it's up to you to decide

Marcus enters the portal, he is now in tech room, the scar stops shining on him

Marcus

Did you felt it too?

Edward

Yes, I had to kill myself to hide, I recommend it to you too, and it feels better than sex

Your brought me here to kill me you bastard?

Edward does not reply, he left the room. The next room was even better equipped, with a large command board, in the middle was a holographic representation of the galaxies 1, 2, 3 and 4, soldiers, in uniforms like Edward's, walked down the corridors.

Marcus ran to Edward, visibly angry, he grabbed him by the shoulder and at that moment every person in uniform aimed their weapons directly at Marcus

Edward

Everyone continue with your task, there is no time to lose Everyone continued to act as if nothing had happened

Marcus

What is it? Your balls have grown and now you think you can behave as you want, don't forget, I am a founding member of Supremes and you are just a...

Edward punches Marcus in the chin, Marcus tries to fight back, but Edward quickly throws a flash bomb, which blinds Marcus, Edward uses Marcus's weight and speed to throw him over the fence. Marcus falls on his back next to the hologram, Edward jumps on his chest and pulls out a pistol that quickly forms into a rifle, holding it pointed at Marcus' forehead

Edward

Don't you dare call me that?

He sad with calm face

Marcus

Put the rifle away, it won't do anything

Edward

It can only bring pleasure to me

Marcus

Pleasure? Is that what this is to you?

He steps back and his riffle turned into pistol again, which he put in his pocket

Edward

This gun uses a Maloridian crystal as a source of energy, and you're not worth the ammunition

Marcus stands up

Edward

I didn't bring you here to kill you Marcus, you're here to hide, you have the option to leave whenever you want, but keep in mind you're a wanted criminal, the second you step out of this base, I won't be able to protect you

Marcus

She seeks revenge, I'm sure she will attack the others

Edward

My team is searching for Gertude and William

He said walking away from Marcus

Marcus

What about Meep, you forgot about him idiot!

Edward pauses, then he took a deep breath

Edward

I haven't forgot...

Marcus

O my God...

INT. Space station, night

Space station, long corridors with the lights off, which indicated it was time to rest. But in one room, the dining room, the light is on, William and Beth are sitting and talking

William

What am I trying to say, I'm young, you are young, I feel like we locked up our future

Beth

Easy boy, we are together for just a couple of months, you are not going to put ring on this finger yet

William

That is what i am talking about, the very thought of spending the rest of my life with one woman kills me, I am glad we are on the same page

Beth

Are... Are you breaking up with me?

William

No, I'm just saying that we should start seeing other people, I can't waste talent on just you

Beth slapped him

You are an egocentric idiot, a dildo is a better fucker than you, the only reason you're here is because my father took pity on you and gave you shelter, and, o boy, you are out of this station after this, good luck in prison

She stood up and started walking away, but William takes her by the hand

William

Hey, I'm sorry, I see you got it wrong, and maybe I mispronounced, it must be up to me, it is was my mistake 100%

Beth smiles, and William hugged her, he whispered in her ear

William

Are you open for a threesome?

William scream in pain as Beth's knee kick him between legs, he falls to the ground

I can't stand this anymore, you're too immature, you won't find anyone if you continue to act like that

William

I am a founding member of Supremes, I can act as I please

Beth

Really, and where that brought you, you're forty-two and you're on the run

William has an angry expression on his face, his mood changed abruptly, his eyes were filled with hatred at that moment

A red light began to flicker in every room, a loud alarm was heard, as the cadets put on their uniforms and ran to the control room, William and Beth entered the room and sat down in their positions.

Their commander, a tall green alien with a scar on his cheek, he was sitting in his armchair, while the cadets gathered around him in their seats

Commander

What is it solider?

Cadet

We have a ship flying towards us, at full speed, they are going to hit us sir, and I'm only reading one form of life, sir

William scar on his forehead started glowing with green light, it is the same scar Marcus and Edwards have, and he knew immediately who was attacking them

William

Sir, you need to turn this shit the other way

Everyone stops with their work and look at William in confusion

William

What attacks us is an immensely strong force, I have fought it before, believe me, it is not something that should be taken lightly

Commander

If a fragile cadet like you survived that "immensely strong force" as you say, I'm sure my soldiers will handle it

William

Fragile... You are going to kill us all!

Commander

I can't have him in my room now, throw him in cell for the night
Two soldiers easily overpowered William and dragged him out of the room. "We're all going to perish" he shouted as they dragged him, he looked at Beth, as his last hope

William

Please listen to me, I am saying this for your own good

But other than a brief worried look from her, he got nothing, she continued with her work and pretended not to notice him.

William notices rescue capsules in the hallway, when guards set out to throw him into the prison, he said

William

Eddy, switch the arrows to sleep mode

Eddy (AI)

Sure thing boos

Quick buzz was heard when left soldier unconsciously falling to the ground, William also falls and quickly fires another arrow at second soldier, who falls on top of him

William

Oh God, why did he lean towards me, how fucking fat he got this much with canned food

He putted two unconscious soldiers into the rescue capsules, then turned on the alarm and entered another capsule. Beth and few other soldiers entered the hallway, he looked at he and simple said "Run while you can", before ejected capsule

He floated slowly in space and watched the green fire break the ship in two, without a single new capsule being released from the ship. He closed his eyes for a moment as he felt sorry for his associates

William

I did everything I could... one man can't stop it

His scar started glowing again, he quickly looked at ship and saw green fire changing its direction and flaying towards him.

The space in front of him changed rapidly, from a dark universe full of stars and green fire chasing him, to tubes and two robotic arms, from the ceiling, opening the capsule. He stood up, with his mouth open

Was all of this simulation...?

Edward is sitting on the box in the corner of the room behind William

Edward

You failed

William smiled when he heard familiar voice

William

Eddy... so you made this, as way to give me back for all pranks I did on you, oh you little joker

Edward

No, there were no simulation, all those people are dead, and you failed life and everything you think you stand for.

William falls to his keens, the moment of relief he had quickly disappeared, he stared at the ground, making minimal movements, sheds tears after tears, his eyes become angry again, filled with hatred, he starts punching the floor with his fist. Edward watched it all in cold blood as he drank his beer, when he took his last sip, he threw bottle to the side and stood up

Pathetic, as always

He walked to the door, ready to exit

William

What happened to you!? You used to be a kid who cried when villain got punched in the face, and now you're watching in cold blood as the entire space fleet burns

Edward said nothing and left the room, he is now in hallway, device in his pocket started beeping, and he looked at it

He threw a box on the ground, which splits on four parts, making a doorway (same one he used to recruit Marcus), he steps into it

INT. intergalactic prison, day

Edward exits the portal, the Allan was waiting for him

Allan

Allan, how nice of you to finally show up

Edward

I already got the information ... job well done, I'm proud of you

Allan

O fuck off

Edward

Where did you lock her up?

Allan

In sector B12, where other users of dark magic are locked (he was horrified when he said dark magic)

Edward

No, it's too dangerous there, move it to A2, where security is strongest

Allan

But, B12 was made for...

Edward

Don't make me repeat my words Allan, you are here just because I chose to allow it, don't let me change my mind about you

Four cadets lead the prisoner, whose arms, legs and neck are in chains, we do not see her face, only her back and hair, Edward is standing in front, smiling and the prisoner is standing in front of him

Edward

I haven't seen you in so long, and you haven't aged a day

We now see that Gertude is a prisoner, she smiles and shows her hands to Edward

Gertude

Can I get "Get out of jail free card", because of an old friendship?

Edward puts his hands over Gertude's and closes his eyes

Edward

I'm really sorry, but I'm working for an intergalactic organization now, I'm loyal to them ... If it means anything to you, I'm sorry you fell first

Gertude

Don't try to pose as a friend, I don't know where the others are

Edward

Take her away, make sure she is closed among the prisoners she has sent here

Gertude

You son of a thousand times fucking whore

EXT. Dark ally, night

Two days ago

The magic portal opens on a wall in a dark alley, Gert comes out of it and sees a tall man in the shadows standing in front of her (Edward), circles appear around her forearms and she is ready to attack.

Edward

Half of the magic users are locked in the tower, the other half is significantly weakened, and I strongly suggest you forget about that stupid idea

Gertude

Eddy? When did you join the Intergalactic Order?

Edward

It's Edward and don't mind the uniform, it only serves me so that I can do my work smoothly

Edward

When the anti-magic law came to power, I knew that sooner or later
I would have to locate all of you

Few seconds of silence

Edward

You don't trust me, after everything order did to your people I can't blame you

Gert

Why are you here Eddy?

Edward

It's Edward now, I don't do nicknames anymore, and the team needs you Gert, I have no patience to keep them focused all the time

Gert

Are you out of your fucking mind, why are you putting Supremes back together?

I have no choice, and I'm afraid that neither do you, by your hand
I can see you tried to broke the bond, tell me, can you still feel the pain?

Gert grabs her hand

Edward

It's been getting stronger lately, and you know what that means, it's only a matter of time before she finds us all

Gert

Sorry Eddy, I am here on the mission, I came to help my brothers, and I have to finish it first

Ha, stubborn as always, make sure to say hi to Allan, from me, when they arrest you, I'll know what to do next

Edward throws a box to the ground and it opens a portal

INT. Intergalactic prison, day

Gertude walks through the corridors of the prison, wears the uniform of the Intergalactic Unit, bends her head to hide her face as other police officers pass by her, and comes to a door that reads "B12"

Gert

This was surprisingly easy, the intergalactic organization doesn't seem to have such good security after all

The alarm went off, a loud siren echoed through the hallway as units rushed in and quickly surrounded Gertude, with their rifles pointed at her

Gertude

Shit

Allen

Stop right there you criminal garbage, one of yours betrayed you

Gertude

Are you drugged? What are you talking about? Wait, you're Allen?

Allen

I see you've heard of my name, my last name to be exact, it's frightening, isn't it?

Gertude

O my God, in addition to all the officers from the intergalactic unit, fate has assigned you to me, please arrest me, I do not resist

Allen puts handcuffs on Gertude's hands

Allen

You know, I'm not really that aggressive and selfish, I have to be confident when I face the enemy, the enemy will shoot me or I will pretend to shoot the enemy

Gertude

Damn, how could I fall for that (she said sarcastically), you destroyed the illusion, just take me to jail

The guards throw Gertude into the dungeon, she is there for a while, at one point she lies in the middle of the room, on her back, at one point she walks through the room and finally sits in a corner with her head down and her knees hugged

One of the guards opens the door, Gertude covers her eyes because the light hurts them.

Guard

We're moving you to sector A

Gertude smiles

INT. Intergalactic prison hallway, day

We pick up with last scene from episode one

Gertude is in hallway, he has chains around her neck, arms and legs, four guards are pulling her towards sector A

Gertude

You son of a a thousand times fucking whore!

Allan

This must be very emotional for you

Edward

We only got one Magic off the street, Allan, nothing more

Allan

This will certainly contribute to us, you will get a promotion, and maybe they will put me in your place, a win-win situation for all of us, except for Gertude, she will probably be sentenced to life imprisonment or death

Edward

Yeah, sure, I will put a good word for you, but this is... I'm a little embarrassed to ask you after everything you've done

Allan puts his hand on Edwards shoulder

Ask me whatever you want, you've already gotten so much, what is another favor

Edward

Move your hand Allan, I don't know what you are doing

Allan begins to squeeze Edward's shoulder

Allan

I was you, before you were you

Edward

Sorry Allan, I can't follow your nonsense

Allan

My apologies, I was still in the character, I originally wanted to be an actor, I'm naturally talented at it

Edward

Allan, I need you not to report Gertude until tonight, I want to leave her in solitary confinement to scare her and then try to get some information out of her

Allan

No problema mi amigo

Edward

What a fucking idiot, "mi amigo" I hardly know the guy, he's not even Spanish, or maybe he really is, I don't know him

INT. Edward's base, medic wing, day

William enters the medic room, He comes across an employee and asks him if he has a painkiller for his headache, but he looks out the window and sees Marcus sitting by the pool, he enters that room

William

Should I be more surprised to see you here or that these lunatics put a pool in a hospital wing

He said with big smile on his face. Marcus turned around and saw William with arms outstretched, as if waiting for a hug

Marcus

Hey, she got you too?

He stands up and two of them they exchanged special handshakes, indicating that they were best friends

William sits next to him

William

Yeah, it was bad, she killed my entire ship, I tried to run away, you know to lead her only to me, not to escape, but I couldn't help them...

Moment of silence

William

You have been here all this years? I heard something from others, but nothing from you pal

Marcus

After Gert left me, I found an planet without humans, just animals, I needed to be alone with my thoughts

William

You spent eight years in isolation?

Marcus

Yeah...

Marcus

I went there to cleanse myself, of everything, and above all, I am still faithful to Gert

William makes confused / frightened facial expression

William

You haven't seen her in years, she's probably moved on, life doesn't stop after divorce, and you should try to find someone else

Marcus

I was in pain when she left, for some time I was finding my peace in alcohol, but then I did something that I will regret my entire life

William

Shit, what happened mate, you can talk to me

Marcus

I made out with another woman, nothing big happened, I managed to collect myself and runaway on time, but... I am a terrible person

William

Hey, you are a free man now, you can do whatever the fuck you want, look at me, I just had a threesome two weeks ago

Marcus

I see you haven't changed at all, the same Will who's able to party all night, to drown himself in alcohol and in the morning go on a mission, hungover, but ready to kick someone's alien ass

William

What can I tell you, years of practice, I put effort and sweat into that ability. But pal, you wasted years of your life in isolation

Marcus

It's not actually that bad, I had time to collect myself, I am different man now...

William

Fuck, damn it, why did you have to tell me that now, couldn't you fucking move on with your life?

Marcus

William, what have you done!?

William

Gertude and I were on mission, three years ago, we were on an icy planet, it was really cold, the two of us were alone in the roast, we hugged to warm up, but then we took off our clothes and...

Marcus

You son of a bitch

INT. Edward's base, day

Edward's portal opens, he was there and one cadet (Stewart) was waiting for him

Edward

Stewart, I had pretty shitty day, please fix it

Stewart

Well sir, this won't brighten your day, but you have to hear it

Edward

That's why I like you Stewart, you are not yes man like the others, and you are honest

Stewart

I found location the G witch

Edward

She has a name, don't fangirl, and I had already talked to her, she decided to walk away from the mission

Stewart gives tablet to Edward

Steward

Sir... she was arrested, I will try to find out more about where she is locked

Edward

Spoiler alert Steward, sector A, I was there

Steward

Then you know that they will execute her tomorrow morning

Edward

That fucking little liar Allan! Steward, I'm leaving the base to you while I...

Marcus (in his tiger form) is thrown out the window of another room and hits a wall next to Edward, Edward and Stewart throw themselves to the ground to avoid broken glass and William who flew out with rocket boots and shot Marcus with two laser pistols. Marcus is on his knees, he put his hands over his face, but the lasers don't seem to have much effect on him. Steward takes out his pistol and aims it first at Marcus then William, then Marcus again

Stewart

Who should I shoot, sir!? Marcus has better powers, and William a better uniform!

Edward

I already told you not to fangirl, you're better than that, and leave this to me

Edward slipped between Marcus and William, leaving a pair of bombs on the ground, which began to flicker and then exploded releasing a strong light that blinded everyone except Edward, who at the time was putting on his glasses. He jumped on William's back and disabled him with a teaser

Eddy (AI)

System shut down

Marcus stood up and punched William in the face, leaving him unconscious

Marcus

You slept with my wife!

Edward quickly stabbed two injections into Marcus' chest. Marcus's eyes began to close, he leaned forward and began to fall, but Edward caught him. Marcus returns to his human form

Marcus

He was my friend...

Edward

I know big guy, try to rest

He turns to Stewart

Edward

Put them in the medic room to rest, but keeps them separated, we don't need any more incidents

Edward throws another portal

Edward

I gather them to fix this mess, not to deal with their shit, I will have to save Gertude myself

Steward

Sir you have to help Gertude, but you will die if you go there, and if you don't go she will die, there is also a chance that you will both die

Edward

Steward I appreciate your concern, but you need to work on motivational speeches

Steward

You said you like when I'm honest

Edward

I knew it would come back and bite my ass from the moment I said it Edward opens a portal and steps in it

Edward

Don't wait for me Steward, live your life, we don't owe anyone anything, I owed the electricity bill, but now that everything has been paid, don't let them lie to you

INT. Intergalactic prison hallway, day

Edward walks out of portal and closes it, one officer is walking next to him and officer greets him, but Edward pulls pistol out of his uniform and points it at officer

Edward

I've waited years to say this, but get the fuck out of here, this is a fucking revolution

Officer (starts crying)

Sir, I respected you, I idealized you

Edward

(He is uncomfortable, but tries to keep a calm expression on his face)

Well, you know how they say, never meet your idols

Officer

But I've known you for years

Just walk away please, but don't go left

Officer

I can't let you do this man

Edward

It's better if you do

Officer shoots Edward in the leg, the bullet makes a hole through Edward's thigh, but Edward doesn't move at all, just sighs in disappointment

Edward

I turned off the nerve endings in my body this morning, what you're doing is hopeless, you can shoot me as much as you want, I'll have enough time to reflexively react and kill you, I only need one bullet

Officer lowers his gun

Edward

Now run

Steward runs to his office and in a hurry knocks on the computer, brings the microphone closer to him, the alarm on his tablet turns on

Alarm

There has been a break at the Intergalactic Prison in sector A, calling all free units to respond

Steward

Shit! Shit! Why are you not answering!? Fuck this!

Steward takes the box out of the drawer and quickly runs out of the room

INT. Medical room, day

Marcus lies on the bed unconscious, Steward runs inside and drags William behind him

William

Are you out of your damn mind?

Steward pulls out a syringe and stabs it in Marcus' chest, Marcus instantly wakes up, turns into a tiger's form and grabs Steward by the neck

Marcus

What did you do to me?

Steward

Edward and Gertude are in danger

Marcus and William

Gertude!?

Steward

Yeah, Edward also, they need your help

William

I'm not going on a mission with this lunatic, he's going to kill me

Marcus

He has already shown many times that the team means nothing to him,
I will do better solo

Get your heads out of your asses, on Armar Prime, Edward is the one who risked his life, while you ran away from the space pirates, Edward steered the ship through the asteroid rain

That actually was Meep, Eddy doesn't know how to drive

Steward

O my bad then... I got nothing else, you mostly kept him locked in the closet

William

He's really lucky to have you

INT. Intergalactic prison, sector A, day

Edward jumps over, walks underneath, runs through the lasers to get to the cell he is unlocking and there Gertude is waiting for him

Gertude

Plan?

Edward

Look at my leg, I was shot, I can't feel how bad it is, but based on the amount of blood that came out, I believe it's bad, can you do wi bi lo bi li do and heal me?

Gertude

What? "Wi bi lo bi li do" What do you think I do? Tricks?

Edward

Gertude, I'm the one who rejected the life he's been making over the years and I'm shot, how did you take it personally, while I am calm?

Gertude

You are right, I am sorry

Edward

Don't be, I was just kidding, I'm drugged with morphine and other shit, I don't feel anything so I'm emotionally and physically untouchable, shoot all the swear words at me, curse my mother, and don't give a fuck

Edward opens the board in front and starts switching wires

Gertude

You're definitely not the boy I knew

Edward

People change Gertude, especially if they have great potential, and other assholes don't allow them to show off

Edward turns around and looks at Gertude

Edward

But you and Meep are the only ones who respected me on that ship, you were the heart of our team, when you left, everything fell apart

Gertude

It's not my fault, the team fell apart when the Intergalactic Alliance released a warrant for us

Edward

We could stay together, the universe is full of planets that are not in the Intergalactic Alliance...

Edward

...But I don't blame you, you helped as much as you could when the accident with Meep happened

Gertude

If it means anything to you, I didn't want things to end the way they are

Edward

Of course not, your friends on the run, your kind of hunted, you've pulled the thickest end here

Gertude

Thank you for understanding Eddy

Edward looked at her, ready to correct his name, but saw Gertude smile as he looked at him, just smiled back at her and continued to connect the wires.

Gertude

There seems to be a bit of emotion left after all, but don't get emotional now, we need to release the magic users, remember?

Edward

The promise is the promise, I personally designed that room, and I have complete control until someone touches those lasers

A similar portal as Edward's (unstable) opens in the room and William and Marcus jump out of it, landing in lasers in their superhero poses, Edward shakes his head in disbelief

William

Don't fear, Supremes are here... what idiot put this laser in middle of the room

Board behind Edward explodes

Marcus

Portal is still open, hurry

Portal explodes

Edward

You incompetent assholes, you destroyed everything

Marcus

Don't sell me that crap, you still have your portal

Edward

Not from here, this was my safe room

William

Prison was your safe room? Why don't you put yourself in the crate right away and get it over with

Gertude

We're not going anywhere until we free my people

William

Hold on, hold on, I didn't sign for any of this

Edward

But you're here now, deep shit, so shut up and help

William

Did you just called me "deep shit"?

Edward looks at the board

Edward

They fried the locks, I can only release all the prisoners or none

Silence

Edward

I need to know what to do until they shut me down

Gertude

Release them, I'll make my way there on my own

Marcus

You won't, release them, we are in this together

William

Shit, it looks like I have no option, fuck it, and release them

Edward released all prisoners, including ones in sector A, Gertrude creates magical circles around his hands, and Marcus throws out his claws, William loaded his guns. 8 prisoners jump out of their cells, Edward opens the main door

Edward

Listen here you little shits, surely now you think how you have outdone us and how easily you can beat us, you are right

Marcus

Edward, you are not helping us

Edward

But you only have a minute before the officers come, would you waste that time fighting us or running for freedom

For two seconds no one moves and then all the prisoners run towards Supremes. Edward lifts the wall in between them, but they are punching it and damaging it

Edward

Holly fuck, this shit backfired really fast, I didn't think they would attack us, that I would choose between freedom and the thugs who caught me ... meh, I would choose to fight too

Marcus

Stop mudlogging, what's the plan?

Look at this Marcus, I had a plan, the plan failed, I threw away the plan, now I'm lost as much as you are

William

Gertude, can you shield me?

Gertude

I can

William

Eddy, give me everything you got

Edward

Are you crazy, why would I give you everything I have? You already shit on my plan once

Eddy (AI)

William that would drain all our energy

Just do it!

Edward

Who the fuck is that?

Electricity appears around William's armor, his chest begins to glow a strong yellow color

William

Remember me!

INT. Intergalactic prison, sector A, prisoners' side, day

Officers run in and see 8 prisoners hitting and breaking the wall, officers point their weapons at them

Surrender!

William's energetic blast breaks down the wall and disintegrate the prisoners and guards. The Supremes enter the room over a broken wall, Marcus carries William on his back, smoke comes out of William's armor and he's all fried, Edward moves the ashes left on the ground with his foot

Edward

I'm impressed, deep shit, you helped for once

William shows his thumb to Edward before he faints.

Edward

Miss Gertude, the podium is yours

Marcus

Mrs., she's still Mrs. Gertude

Give me a break

Gertude runs out into the main hallway, and attacks the officers, she forms a small rock and throws it to the ground in front of the officer where the floor becomes liquid and sticky, he bursts into it, and she jumps over and kicks him officer in the head.

She grabs a riffle of another officer and mutters some spell and his rifle becomes a snake, she takes the snake in one hand and hits the officer in the stomach with her elbow, when he bends she hits him in the back of the head with her elbow.

She throws the snake at the other officer, the snake bites him on the throat and knocks him to the ground. The snake disappears after that.

Gertude sees four guards running towards her, two circles from her hands fly to the ceiling in front of them and destroys it, so that the ceiling falls on the guards, the circles return to her forearms, but only four (two on each hand) remains to shine.

During all that time, the Supremes were slowly holding out

Edward

Congratulations, you spent too much energy on a couple of guards

Gertude

I had to vent my anger somewhere

Marcus

You were great, it reminded me of the old days when we were young and in our primes

Marcus tries to take Gertude by the hand, but she angrily moves her hand and leaves

Edward

Bad choice of words, very bad, I don't even know how you married her in the first place

INT. Intergalactic prison, sector B, day

Edward opens the doors from sector B, magic users hold broken bars and miscellaneous weapons to defend themselves, but drop it to the ground when they see Gertude, one of them hugs her, and all the circles on her arms are off.

Dozens of guards run into the hallway and point their weapons at the Supremes, who are pushed against the wall. Allan is leading them

Allan

You finally showed yourself to be who I thought you were, and everyone told me I was just jealous because my wife was sleeping with someone from this department

Edward

Gertude, I've moved you to Sector A so you don't run out of power, please tell me you have enough left

Gertude

Not this much

Edward

William, do your laser thing again

William is unconscious, Marcus throws him to the ground

Edward

Ladies and gentlemen, we've been putting it off for a long time, but now it's official, we're fucked

The spaceship crashes into the prison, tearing down walls and trampling officers. The Supremes stare at the ship in confusion, Meep opens the door and Edward begins to laugh out loud

Meep

I'm sorry I'm late, I took a wrong turn when I saw Jupiter, which is very stupid of me, but what are you going to do, I haven't been here in years

Marcus

Meep you are alive!?

Meep

Why wouldn't I be Marcus? Are you hiding something from me, oh my god, am I a ghost

Marcus

No, no, everyone was just talking about the accident with you

Meep

Oh yes, the space pirates stole the capsules with my frozen semen, they thought it was valuable alcohol, I tried to find them, but to no avail, maybe I'm a father, and maybe they just used it as ...

Gertude

Damn Meep, we don't want to hear the rest

Edward

Forget everything I said, it's proven once again, I'm fucking untouchable, look at you, you're all exhausted beaten up, and I, I don't have a single injury

Gertude looks at Edward's leg

Edward

Fuck, I forgot they shot me when I arrived, but this morphine works just fine

Gertude

There's no way we can escape with the ship, they'll crash us as soon as we take off

Edward

You're right, but we don't need to take off, just run out of these walls

Edward

Everyone listen to me now, run in front, follow the fish looking alien, he will show you the way, please do not panic, and if you have to panic, do not scream loudly, it irritates me. Here you go, run!

Allan

Son of a bitch, this isn't going to work for you

Edward gives his portal to Meep and he takes everyone else outside, the only ones living in the room remain Edward and the injured Allan.
Allan's arms and legs are broken, his face is bloody.

Edward

But it worked perfectly, my plan worked and your plan failed, do you know why? Because I'm smarter, more capable and more likable than you. Yes, yes, yes, you will get a promotion now that I have become a criminal and a possible intergalactic enemy, but there will be one thing in your head, something that will not give you peace, you were their second choice, same with your wife, both you and she know who the best is

ENT. In front of the intergalactic prison, day

Edward slowly approaches the portal as all the magic users, one by one, go through it

Gertude

Is everything ok?

Edward

I gave up my career to become a criminal, I lost my base and all my wealth, and do you expect me to smile?

Meep

You are with friends again

Edward

I try not to think about it, it makes me wanna cry Allan crawls out of jail. Edward changes coordinates to his portal

Edward

This guy is worse than diarrhea

Allan

Kill me, or I swear I'll hunt you down

Edward points his middle finger at Allan and falls into the portal, his back to the portal, the other Supremes remain there and look confused. Edward returns

Edward

You should have done the same, you ruined my exit, now I look stupid, and I'm talking nonsense because the pills are stopping working

Green fire descends on the earth from the sky, a young witch with green hair and a scar over her left eye comes out of the fire, she walks towards Supremes.

Emerald

It took me years to recover, but I am finally here, I will take the world to inspire you for the damage you have done to me

Hundreds of souls emerge from the green fire and stand behind Emerald

Edward

Aha, you can started with Allan, no one likes him

Edward pushes William, Marcus and Meep in his portal and opens the new one in which he jumps in and pulls Gertude with him

INT. Galahalahala's house, evening

Galahalahala is sleeping in her room, when portal opens Edward and Gertude enters, she woke up, scared

Edward

Galahalahala, I don't have time to explain, the pill slowly stops working, oh it hurts a lot Galahalahala, we need a place, a quiet place with a bed to spend the night and my associates will join us, are you willing to give it to me Galahalahal, o, I was in prison, they did bad things to me, they put a hole in my body, we will leave in morning, no one will know about this, you will keep your honor, no one will know that I visited you late at night

Gertude

Don't listen to him, I mean listen to him, but get the scene out of context, we're in great danger, wait a minute, I'm not following your plan, why did we come here and risk this girl's life?

Galahalahala

I'm in danger?

Edward

No Galahalahala, I love you too much to put you in danger, Gertude, you and I have somehow managed to weaken Emerald's connection with us, it will be difficult for her to follow us, which gives us time to come up with a somewhat decent plan.

Galahalahala

Edward, are you ok? You're acting weird

Edward

That's because I haven't taken my pill for an hour, maybe you have morphine, but not regular morphine, but the one I make, the regular one is addictive, and the one I make doesn't cause addiction the first hour since you take it

Gertude

Eddy, where are Marcus, Meep and William

Edward

The only place they're safe from Emerald, but maybe they're not safe at all, but not from Emerald, they're safe from her, I'm never wrong

INT. Edward's base, night

The portal opens in Edward's base (On the monitors in the background is Edward's picture and it says wanted), Steward is in the middle of the room, at one end the portal opens and Marcus, William and Meep fall out of it

Steward

O shit

Marcus and William quickly stand up and tries to run back in portal, but it closes in front of them

Marcus

Gertude!

William

Eddy!

Eddy (AI)

I'm still low, but I'm recovering, thanks for asking

William

I wasn't calling you

Eddy (AI)

Oh, OK, awkward

Freeze, don't move

Marcus, William and Meep turn around to see officers pointing their weapons at them, but a shot from a silenced pistol was heard and one by one the guards fell to the ground, just to reveal that Steward shot them from behind. Steward goes to the control panel, indifferent, like Edward when in action, presses a button that closes their room, there are security camera footage on the screen, on which some gas is released all over the base and everyone who was in other rooms falls unconsciousness. Steward pulls out the gas masks and throws them at Marcus, William and Meep

Steward

In cases like this, Edward wanted to say something, since he's not here, I'll do it.

Steward

Ladies and gentlemen, I'm not provoking anyone, I'd just say gentlemen, but Meep is here, and I don't want to assume his gender, those aren't Edward's words, I'm off topic. We're in mole protocol, someone betrayed us or I screwed up, I'm glad...

William

No one gives a shit, where are Eddy and Gertude

Steward

I am sure that they will join us soon, and now help me get rid of these poor unconscious innocent people who were just doing their job, so we have a whole base just for us

Meep

I haven't been on the ground for twenty minutes, and I've already been hired as a cleaner, this is racial discrimination

Marcus

Meep, do you even know what that means?

Meep

No, but they told me to say it whenever I don't want to do something

William

If I clean, you clean, fish head!

Marcus

I went to treat my rage, but you are the one who inherited it

William

I am not talking to you, you broke my tooth, and it wasn't even a milk tooth

Marcus

I didn't smooth things over with you, I'm just waiting to see if my wife is okay, then I'll break your whole jaw

William

You're crazy, she's not your wife anymore, stop attacking everyone for her

Steward stands in front of him

Steward

Let's all get to work until we repeat this morning's incident

INT. space bar, day

Samuel enters the bar, the bar is empty, except for one place where Edward sits with an open portal next to him in which he holds his

Samuel

I never saw this bar empty

Edward

Everyone ran out when they saw me coming in, privileges when you're a wanted criminal, you can take whatever seat you want

Samuel

I see

Edward

You're probably wondering what's up with the portal, my hand tied to the button, if I move my hand off the button or make some weird move, this whole place is going to explode with both of us, so don't try anything

INT. Edward's base, bathroom, day

Meep enters the bathroom, he takes off his pants and sits on the
on the wall, leaning against the cistern. Meep screams in fear

INT. space bar, night

Edward

Now when we have that out of the way, I'm ready to talk business.
And also drinks are free, best in the galaxy

Samuel

Finally, we worked together for so many years Edward, I took you into my house, you were part of the family, and I want to solve our problem with words

INT. Edward's base, bathroom, night

Marcus gathers the unconscious guards on one side of the hallway, and William on the other side of hallway, Steward is looking at paper

William

I have one more than you

Marcus rolled his eyes and Meep runs out all scared with his pants down

William

Hell, Meep put on your pants, I can see your ... your place where your genitals were

Meep

There's a flying hand in the bathroom, just hanging there

Oh it's just Edward with the classic trick "Bomb on the other end of the portal", spoiler alert, it was never a bomb. Speaking of Edward, in time I read his phase three of this protocol

Marcus

Phase 3? What was phase 2?

Cleaning

Marcus

He devoted the entire phase to cleaning

Steward

There is a possibility that he was high, but I am not here to judge

(Reading Edward's text)

If it's time for phase three, and it is, because you hear this text, there are six mini portals in the control room, in the shape of a bracelets, because why not, let's go full sci-fi on this shit, intended for those who have decided to stay by my side, I don't believe there are more than two of you because I'm not here to make friends but i would just look like an asshole if I only made two bracelets and there are let's say three of you. Bracelets have only one purpose to bring you to my portal box, so if I am here with you, there is no point in using them and I should have said that at the beginning, not giving you false hope and forcing you to read this text, but I am writing on typewriter, so that's what you have. In case I'm not there and you choose to teleport to me, you have to take all the bracelets with you to stop the enemy doesn't teleport to me with them, I'd write you instructions, but I'm running out of space on paper, and I hate waiting in store line to buy a new one, of course I could order it online, but by the time it arrives, I would have forgotten what I wanted to write. Now that I see this paper, I'm sorry I told you about the papers instead of shortening the instructions, you know what, just slap them on top like Ben Ten and that's it

Steward takes the bracelets out of the box and continues to take them to Meep, Marcus and William, which they put on their hands the moment the Intergalactic officers break in.

It's hero time

Steward, Marcus, William and Meep activate their portals and disappear

INT. space bar, night

Samuel

Edward, can you hear yourself? You ask me to make the army available to you after what you have done

Edward

I did what was necessary because I knew no one would listen to me until a problem arose. All the prisoners are dead, deny it if you can

Samuel

Where did you get that information?

Edward

Pure guess, I saw what Emerald was doing, stealing souls, focusing on the center of the planet to destroy it all and then pick up dead souls, which is crap tone a lot

Samuel

Ok, ok, you know your opponent better than I do, I can't give you an army, but maybe I can do something with the secret service and task force Y

Samuel scratched his neck

Edward

What is your fucking endgame here?

Samuel

What do you mean? We negotiate, in a peaceful way

Edward

You scratched your neck, that's what you do when you're lying, you son of a bitch

Samuel

Like I said, you're family, I don't want anything bad to happen to you

William, Meep, Marcus and Steward teleport and sit next to Edward, Edward quickly pulls his hand out of the portal (which changes color) and points his revolver at Samuel

Edward

This is how you take care of a family you lying piece of shit?!

Samuel

Edward! Your hand! You will kill us all

Edward

There's no bomb stupid idiot!

Edwards kicks William in portal

Edward

Follow Deep shit!

Marcus, Steward and Meep jump in portal

Samuel

Wait, there is still hope, hand over Supremes and we will say you were an undercover, you will take all the credit and my place when I retire

Edward

Tempting offer, but I don't do that to the family

Edward puts one leg in portal, then turns around, looks at Samuel

Edward

I really hoped you would be Nick Furry to my avengers, but it's better this way

Edward shoots Samuels drink and closes the portal, leaving Samuel alone in the room. Samuel takes round, mechanical device and placed on a table, a hologram of the President of the Earth appears on the device

Samuel

Edward is no longer with us, President, what's our next step?

President

He is stubborn and egocentric, but he is the smartest brain the Intergalactic unit has, we must not allow the incident from Eurga to happen again, do as he said, and send the army to prison. If you see any of Supremes, kill them, we must not allow the public to see how we cooperate with enemies

INT. Galahalahala's house, morning

William falls out of portal and Edward, Meep, Marcus and Steward jumped after him

William

What the fuck?

Edward

I just saved you, you are welcome

William

You kicked me

Edward

The goals justifies all actions

Galahalahala

Edward, look, something terrible is happening

Edward turns and sees Gertude as she levitates in the air, her eyes are closed and there is green energy around her

Edward

Gertude?

Galahalahala

O would you look at her, I didn't even noticed her

Edward

Well ... wait, then what's the terrible thing you told me to see Galahalahala points at TV and they see the intergalactic army as it approaches the prison, but the souls leave the earth and begin to attack it

William

This is a real shit show

Edward

I'll take care of it, Meep watch out for Galahalahal, don't let anything bad happen to her, and see what's up with Gertude, but don't wake her if she's sleepwalking, that shit can kill her, Marcus, she's your wife, do what you have to do, you know her the best

William

EX WIFE!

Marcus

It does not change the fact that our connection is greater than yours has ever been

Edward throws his portal to the ground

Edward

Deep shit, you are ugly and old, you will die alone, stop destroying other people's happiness

Edward

Also, if Gertude comes back as zombie or monster, she asked me to kill her, I don't have the heart to do it, and I won't be there, so any of you will have to. Meep, I'm looking at you psychopath, but let's hope that doesn't happen

Edward leaves the room and William looks at Galahalahala

William

I'm not old

Galahalahala

And not a single fuck was given

Marcus

Gert, Come on, baby, whatever you are fighting, you can do it

EXT. Gertude's mind, night

Gertude is sitting on a rock, green fog is all around her. A low voice says "This is your work, you wanted this". Gertude stands up and all the sudden, she is at the cemetery, a figure in a hood approaches her from behind (Emerald)

Emerald

You buried me in the cemetery a long time ago, among all the corpses you left that day

Emerald

You wanted to get rid of me, you never accepted me, and you killed a part of yourself

Gertude

No, you're not me!

Emerald

But I have, I have lived in you since the day you accepted my strength

Gertude

I had no choice

Emerald

Yes, you had, and I need to thank you for your choice, when you decided to remove me, it woke me up

Gertude

Take what you came for and leave

Emerald

Why would I take just a fraction of the power offered to me, in addition to all the magical users, earthlings and other monsters on Earth, what you took from me is nothing compared to what I will take here, your soul is strong, but not nearly as strong as the soul which I own and which I will own

Gertude

You sick bastard!

Emerald

No, I am just doing what I need to survive. And don't call me sick, look where you brought us, this is your scene, what should I do? Dance on the graves of the souls you have sinned against?

Gertude kicks the ground, the crack cracks and knocks Emerald down on his back, he gets up quickly and laughs

Emerald

Two can play that game

Emerald rises his hands and souls from graves stud up

INT. Galahalahala's house, day

News host

I can't believe where he got the courage to show up

Characters look at TV and see Edward coming out of portal with his hands in the air

EXT. Prison area, day

Edward

I'm coming in peace to help you, but you're going to kill me, aren't you?

One solider throws a grenade which lands in front of Edward

Edward

God, I have when I am right, but I love it in same time, it's fucked up

Bomb explodes

INT. Galahalahala's house, day

Galahalahala falls to her knees and William hugs her

Galahalahala

NOOOOOO

William

It's all right, Will is here

Steward

I... I can't believe it

Edward returns

Edward

Ok, listen here, I was there and it is a real... William get the fuck away from her!

Edward points his pistol at William

Edward

It's not enough for you to take Marcus' wife, now you're aiming for my love interest

Galahalahala

(Smiling)

Your what?

Gertude starts bleeding from her nose

Marcus

Eddy!

Edward

It's Edwa... fuck it, she is having mental battle, Emerald is close enough to her that it can attack her mind, the consequences could be catastrophic, for her, not for us

Marcus

What can we do?

Edward

I wish we could help, but there is war going on

Marcus

Edward!

Edward

There is one option, but it is very risky, I can temporarily switch someone's mind to hers, to help her, but if she fails, or dies there, he and Gertude will remain in an eternal coma.

Marcus

Fine, I'll do it

Edward

That was fast, didn't you hear me mention the eternal coma?

Marcus

She is my wife, I know her best, that's why I should be the one to get inside her

Edward

I don't dispute that, do whatever you want in your free time, but here we are talking about mind transfer, maybe some of her best friends know her, does someone has her contact? Meep? Galahala? Anyone?

Marcus

Eddy, we don't have time, please let me do it, I wasn't there when she needed me, please let me correct my mistakes

Edward

Fine, but Marcus, if you screw this up, I'll never forgive you Edward slaps Marcus's forehead and leave a device on it, and gently puts similar looking device on Gertude's forehead, Marcus unconscious, falls face down on the ground

William

That's it, just put thingy on their forehead and he's in

Edward

What can I tell you, I'm all for efficiency, no unnecessary bullshit

Steward

Edward, what are we going to do?

Edward

O yes, right, we are still in war, I forgot, too many things happen at once, my connection drops

Edward tries to take another pill, but his box is empty

Edward

Fucking Hell, can this day get any worse!?

Listen here, I don't want to repeat myself. Meep, evacuate the city, engage all defense, but first took Galahalahal to safety. William,
I can't leave you near her because you don't have fucking self-control, so you're coming with me

Steward

What am I going to do?

Edward

You... you are going to... yes, you are going stay here and watch
Marcus and Gertude

But I can...

Edward

Jesus, Steward, didn't you hear me say I didn't want to repeat myself, so shut up and do what I told you to do

Edward opens the portal

William

Where are we going?

Edward

To stop this madness

William

This is not telling me where we are going

Edward

Stop being a fucking moron and come in, we are going in center of the Earth

William

We can't do that

Edward

If you say that Earth is flat, I will personally pull your soul out of your body

William

No, but the intergalactic police will kill us as soon as they see us, they almost killed you few minutes ago

Edward

That is the risk we have to take, I am ready to risk

William

I'm not

Edward

You don't have other option

William

Shit, you are right

Galahalahala grabs Edward by the hand

Galahalahala

What were you saying about your love interest?

Edward

I mean ... it just came out of my mouth when I saw you with William
... I mean, it's not like I didn't mean what I said ...

Steward

WOW, a man who always has a ready speech struggles to compose a single sentence

Edward

Shut up Steward. Galahalahala, you are one of the few I could trust, but you don't need a man like me, someone whose life is constantly in danger and who struggles every day to stay calm

Galahalahala

Will you give me a second to say something?

Edward

Oh, sure

Galahalahala

I have nothing to say

Silence...

Galahalahala kisses Edward

Meep

I'm not going to imagine how they kids would look like, o crap, I just did imagined and I saw an abomination

Edward

What does this means?

Galahalahala

Go, we will talk later

Edward

There might not be later, talk now woman

Galahalahala pushes Edward in portal

William

Nice, I have to try this sometimes when I fuck up something

EXT. Gertude's mind, night

Marcus is passing through an open valley, the fog is on the ground, he calls for Gertude, but no one answers, he makes one more step and trips on stone, falls to the ground, when he turns around to see what he tripped off, he saw a small tombstone on which is written "Marcus's and Gertude's marriage"

Marcus

Maybe we're not on break anymore

Gertude falls, from the sky, next to Marcus, she is all beaten up, trying to get up but not strong enough, leaning on her knees and arms as she looks at the ground

Marcus

Come on, get up, and let's get out of here

Gertude

So, are you my conscience or what?

Marcus

No, it's me, the real Marcus, now get up, I don't want to see you like that, and you're stronger than that

Gertude

Yes, it's the real you, used to commanding

EXT. Intergalactic prison area, day

Soldiers they shoot at ghosts, when a bullet hits a ghost it scatters it for a second, but the ghost reassembles and attacks.

Edward and William run and hide behind the rock

Edward

Are you ready?

William

Wait, I'm a little nervous

Edward slaps William

William

There was no need for that, really

Edward

Put yourself together, we are here for one reason only

William

You are right, go ahead, do it

Edward

Me? Why me, you do it

William

Why me?

Edward

You have more punchable face

William

That is... true, fine, I'll do it

William stands up with his hands in the air

William

Shoot at me! I am your target!

Soldiers start shooting and William and his body falls next to Edward

Edward

Shit, not like that!

Edward starts running, but he quickly runs into a dead end and the guards surround him, he pulls pistol out

Edward

You will never catch me alive, I have completed my life purpose

EXT. prison area, day

Edward and William step out of portal, Edward's watch starts beeping, William pulls out his pistols

William

What is that?

Edward

Relax, our decoys died, WOW, they shot me in the head, and the one with my gun ... wait, this sounds like suicide to me, am I suicidal?

William

I am here if you want to talk

Edward

I would rather die, then talk to you

William

O my God, it's that serious?

Edward

What, no, it was metaphorical, let's go Deep shit, the guards who chased our decoys are coming back

INT. Intergalactic prison, day

William and Edward are walking down the hallway

Edward

Forty-three floors down there is the passage we need, that's where the Emerald will be, we have to hurry to prevent a catastrophe, a great catastrophe

Right, let's go

Edward

I am right behind you, watching your back

William starts running down the stairs

Edward

He's stupider than I thought

INT. Intergalactic prison, bottom floor, day

William, all sweaty runs down the stairs, and sees Edward already there

William

But... but... how

Edward

I used elevator

William

Where is that fucking elevator?

Edward

Jesus Christ, right behind you, you make Dora the explorer look like a genius next to you

William

This is not the earth's core

Edward

Nope, it's right under us, but here is all the equipment we need Edward is looking for something in the desk

William

Who put all this shit here, this is prison, not a lab

Edward

Yeah, what fool has put expensive equipment, which the black market is looking for, in the safest building on the planet, a real idiot Edward finds what he is looking for, he takes out the pill out of box and swallows it

William

What is that?

Edward

Will you stop asking unnecessary questions? This is lithium, since I've used up all my morphine, I have to use what I have. Stay here Edward walks in the room and closes the door behind him

INT. lab room, day

Edward

Turn on my microphone

William

I can't hear you!

Edward

Turn on my microphone

William

Can you hear me?

Edward

I can, turn my microphone on!

William

I think that your mic is not on

Edward

Why did I bring him?

INT. Control room, day

Eddy (AI)

Why don't you try turning on his microphone

William

Will do, thank you mate

Edward

Fucking incompetent person, not able to turn on the microphone, the decoy was smarter than him

William

I can hear you

Edward

Finally! Turn on the live broadcast, in this area, I have something to say, before the fight

EXT. city street, day

Meep is flying his ship, Galahalahala is with him, they landed in street, Meep turns on his speaker, and everyone turns to look at him

Meep

Earthlings, your life is in danger, please get on this spaceship to evacuate you, I promise we won't kidnap you, I look like an alien, it's because I am, but you can trust me, come on please

Everyone continues with their work

Meep

Well, I did what I could

Meep flees up, but Galahalahala stops him

Galahalahala

Are you serious just leaving?

Meep

Hmmm, is that a trick question?

Galahalahala

These people will die if we don't evacuate them, the intergalactic police are too busy guarding the prison

Meep

Yeah I see what you're aiming for Meep drops a bomb which exploded on street, people start running in panic

Meep

Don't fear, for now, this was just a small demonstration of what will happen in an hour or two if you don't evacuate, please leave town, thanks for understanding

Galahalahala

You are sick!

Meep

Why? I said please and thanks, what else I was supposed to do People are getting their families in car and driving away

Galahalahala

I can't believe this worked

Meep

I see where this is going, I'm not an expert in the field, but I'm not blind either

Galahalahala looks at Meep confused

Meep

We are bounding, but we have to stop here, Edward has shown interest in you, I will not stand in his way, and if we are both like what earthlings call sea animals, all indications are that we should be together, but I don't swim in those waters, I'm not William

Galahalahala

O good, to know

Meep

Now, when we got that out of way, we can continue to nuke rest of the city and drop you off to the safe place

INT, Gertude's mind, night

Emerald is fighting with Marcus (in his tiger form), while Gertude is watching them in background

Emerald slaps Marcus with his right hand, then slaps him with left and then hit him with his right fist knocking him to the ground. Gertude throws her ring which hits Emerald and makes him to make two steps forward, he turs around and smiles, Getrude has only one ring left and it is barely glowing

Emerald

I've heard witches get stronger over the years, but it's different with you, the older you get, the easier it is to control

Emerald stars walking towards Gertude, but Marcus grabs him by the leg

Emerald

You again!?

Marcus

Gert, don't let him get in your head

Gertude

It's a bit late for that, he's already here

Marcus

I didn't mean that, on Azmutian Prime, you're the one who saved us from that star controlling alien, all the time you were the one who guarded our backs, damn it, even when I met you, you were young, but you were among the strongest witches, don't let anyone tell you otherwise, you are the strongest person I have ever met

Gertude

That is different, I never had this demon with me

Marcus

We all have our demons, but we must not allow them to determine who we are

Emerald grabs Marcus for his coat and throws him into a tombstone that breaks and falls on Marcus

Gertude

Marcus!

Emerald

He started to get bored, and we have to keep this entertaining
Emerald creates a sword in his right hand, the blade of the sword is green fire (with which he chased the characters at the beginning)

Emerald

Let's finish this, once for all

Emerald pierced Gertude's stomach with his sword, she grabbed the handle of the sword with both hands, which Emerald was still holding.

INT. Galahalahala's house, day

Gertude's stomach started bleeding and Steward started panicking, he takes first aid kit, he tears her dress and sees a big wound in her stomach, he starts bandaging her

Steward

Please don't die, you are my favorite, and we haven't had a chance to meet properly

INT. Gertude's mind, night

Emerald smiles as he looks at Gertude, whose head is bent and she can barely stand on his feet, Her left hand grabs Emerald by the shoulder, his smiling expression quickly changes to frightened, green fire begins to surround Gertude

Emerald

No, no, no

Gertude

O yes

Emerald

But how

Gertude

It took me a while to understand, but better late than never, you're like fear, the more I run away from you or I let you control me, the stronger you are, but you're not the one in control here, like you said, you are just a power fraction, while I am alpha

Emerald

Wait, wait, we can make a deal, my energy is useful to you

Gertude

Yes, but not in the way you think

Gertude pushes Emerald to the ground, making him kneel

Gertude

Kneel before your queen!

Emerald turned into green fire and Gertude absorbed him, then she kneeled and put hand over her wound on stomach, she pulls out the sword and two more ring appears on her hands, one on each hand.

Marcus regained consciousness, got up quickly, threw stones at himself, and shouted angrily

Marcus

Don't touch her you bastard

He calmed down and returned to his human form when he saw Gertude on the ground, he run to her and allowed her to lean on him, he put his hand over her cheek

Marcus

You did it

Gertude

Thank you for coming, you didn't do much, but still, you came

Marcus

We need to talk later, I don't want to end things like we did

Gertude

Let's get out of here first, and I want to talk too

INT. Prison area, day

Emerald is flying above prison, in a second he loses control and begins to fall, the ghosts around him disintegrate, he regains his balance before he hits the ground and the ghosts re-create, he screams in anger

INT. Prison basement, day

Edward's and William's scars lit up and disappeared

William

What happened!?

Edward

She did it, that crazy daughter of the bitch

William

I am not following you, explain

Edward

Yeah, no shit that you are not following Deep shit... you I just rimed this shit... here it goes again, either I'm doing well freestyle or I'm high as fuck

William

Eddy, Concentrate

Eddy (AI)

Are you talking to...?

William

To him

Edward

Did you watch Harry Potter? Imagine Edward as Voldemort, and his connection to Gertude as his Horcruxes, now that Gertude has destroyed that Horcruxes, we have a chance to defeat him

William

I haven't watched Harry Potter

Edward

Fuck you! These films are art and books also

Edward

Turn on the live broadcast now, it's time for us to do our part
INT. Galahalahala's house, day

Meep returns to see Steward crying over Gertude's body

Meep

Blood, oh no

Steward

I am afraid yes

Gertude and Marcus wake up and Meep pulls out his gun

Meep

Zombies, Eddy warned us about this scenario

Steward jumps on top of Meep

No Meep!

Gertude throws one ring which made Meep drop his gun

Gertude

Meep, it's us, real us, we are not zombies... Thanks to the one who bandaged my wounds?

Steward stares shaking her hands

Steward

It was me, hello, I am big fan, also I am Edward's assistant, I helped him locate you all, I also graduated from the Intergalactic Academy in less than two years, and most of them take at least four years

Gertude

Good for you kid

Edward's voice is heard in background

Edward

Ok, are we live, we are live, listen here?

Characters turn to see him on TV

INT, world, day/night

Edward's broadcast is listen to all over the world, different views of it

Edward

This is an international broadcast, which is on every TV, every computer and every phone in the world, you probably have many questions, but I will give you only one answer, the government is spying on you, now, I know that not all countries have English as their language, but how I would save myself from repetition, I will only speak English, this is 2021, if you don't know English, what were you doing, living under a rock?

Our planet is under attack from the same villain who defeated the Supremes 8 years ago, they have reunited to stop him, but don't let your hopes enter them, because they've been together for less than two days, and the system is falling apart, so, I don't know what to tell you. But I'm not here to talk to you, but to address you directly Emerald, because I have no other way, if you want to do your job efficiently, target the earth's core, I thought you would understand that by now, so you will kill us all at once move, but know only one thing, I'm waiting for you downstairs, no plan, but I'm waiting for you, come if you can

Yeah, let's not forget to say this, President, I know you're watching this, I only have one thing to tell you, fuck you pussy

Cut

A Serbian family is watching a broadcast

Kid

Tata, da li ćemo umreti? (Dad, are we going to die?)

Father

Hajde da se pomolimo Bogu sine. (Let's pray son.)

INT. Prison basement, day

Edward puts his portal box in device behind him

William

What the fuck, you gave him idea how to end us

Edward

Relax I have plan and back up

William

But you told him that you don't have it...

Edward

Well, I'm not a fool to tell him "come on, come to me to fight, I have a plan that will defeat you"

William

Smart

Edward

Hey, remember when I told you that I am either good at freestyle or I am high

William

Yes...

Edward

Well I'm definitely high, my legs are starting to take off Edward falls to his ass and presses the button which closes the door

Edward

You shall not pass!

William

I didn't even tried

Edward

I know, but I really wanted to include at least one of Lord of the rings reference

William

So what is going to happened now

Edward

If my plan worked, and it did, because let's be honest, I'm a genius, Emerald will appear here in 20 seconds, and I will use this device to star gate his shit to another planet. Just to clarify this is not a rip off of a real star gate, but a classic portal, just bigger, I'm not trying to get sued

William

In this time you've spent without me, you've matured, you've become a better leader than I've ever been, and I seem to have held you back all along

I know... Don't bother yourself too much with that, you're just like that, it's in your nature to destroy every relationship that works

Green fire breaks the ceiling and Edward turns big portal which swallows him and Emerald, and the ghost that followed Emerald

William makes step back and falls to his butt, holding his head.

Steward, Gertude, Marcus and Meep appeared in room where Edward was

Steward

Where is he?

William enters the room

William

He went away, teleported to unknown location

Meep

Bravo Captain Obvious, we know that, we tried to teleport to him using bracelets

Steward

His portal stayed here, the Osmoanisian crystal broke because it created such strong rift, and it was not intended for power like that

Yes, but William doesn't know that because he didn't even tried to help, he stayed back, like usual

Gertude

The prototypes you used to get into jail, can they take us there?

Steward

If I can find the coordinates Edward teleported to, we should be able to open the rift for a few seconds, but it's a one-way ticket

Meep

I have no other plans today

Marcus

Edward was willing to sacrifice himself to save us, now it's our turn to save him, that's our priority

Steward searches for coordinates on the destroyed rift gate screen

Steward

I found the coordinates, thank God

Gertude

Let's go!

Steward

Make sure to use the elevator, it will save us time and energy

Meep

Yes, we saw it on sign that says "Elevator", only a blind person would not see it

Gertude, Meep, Steward and Marcus start running out, they run past William who doesn't move, Gertude stops and Marcus stops when he notices her

Gertude

William?

William

Marcus is right, Gert, I am not a leader, nor am I a fighter, I am an ordinary coward

Gertude

But Eddy is your friend

William

You will be better without me

Gertude

You should be ashamed you fucking pussy

Gertude walks towards elevator, Marcus is just looking at William

Marcus

I'm glad you finally showed who you really are

William

I wish you two all the best

EXT. Alien moon planet, day

Edward is lying on the ground, he raises his head from the dark gray sand and wipes it from his face

Edward

If I get out of this alive, I'll stop ...I'll reduce my drug use
A green fire is created in front of Edward and Emerald emerges from it

Emerald

You fool! When I'm done with you, I'll return to Earth

Edward

Listen here, this moon serves to maintain the gravity of the surrounding planets, it's in a bad location because it's often in the path of meteor showers ... I can't explain now, but there's an energy shield around it, good luck destroying it, you'll need it years

Emerald

Should I be stupid enough to believe that?

Emerald throws fire ball which hits the shield

Emerald

You look stupider now if you ask me

Emerald

You know I will kill you, right?

Edward

Yes, I do know that and still I am here, no plan, no back up, no weapons

Steward

Yo, Doctor Who, on your left

Edward turns left and there was no one there, he turned right and he saw Steward, Gertude, Marcus and Meep

Edward

It was my right, but I appreciate the reference

Meep

Happy to see us?

Edward

No morons, I was hoping you'd be smart enough to escape because he can't be tracking you anymore, and you came to him here. He will pierce this shield from a couple of blows and then, the Earth is over

Emerald

I knew you were lying!

Edward (to Emerald)

I bluffed, to make them feel bad, now you look even more stupid

Edward (To Supremes)

I'm not bluffing, the Earth is fucked up if he breaks the shield

Marcus

You send us mixed signals here, nothing is clear to me, I will not lie

Edward

Can we start punching each other?!

Emerald

Only if my enemy insists

Emerald rises Ghosts from green fire, Edward takes his riffle out, Marcus turned into Tiger form and Gertude lights her rings. Ghost them and Supremes started running towards each other

In the middle of the crowd, Edward grabs Stewart by the shoulder and pulls him behind a rock where they grab shelter

Edward

What the actual fuck are you doing in this shit hole?

Steward

I am doing my best Captain

Edward

You are going to get yourself killed, stay back!

Steward

You can't leave me aside

Edward

I'm not leaving you aside, I'm leaving behind, and don't you understand the words coming out of my mouth ... damn I'm turning into

William

Edward gives his gun to Steward

Edward

Just be careful, please

Steward

What about you?

Edward

I have pocket knife. But listen here, ghosts regenerate, we can't kill what's already dead, Emerald uses them to create a shield in front of him, because he's weak in close combat, we have to break through to him, spread the word

Steward runs to Gertude

Steward

Gert, we need to attack him in close combat, spread the word

Gertude (to Marcus)

We need to clear the way for close combat, spread the word

Marcus

On it!

Marcus (to Meep)

We will attack in close combat! Spread the word!

Meep (to Ghost)

Be aware we will attack in close combat! Spread the word

Ghost (to Emerald)

They will attack in close combat

Emerald rises even more ghosts around him

Marcus

Meep!?

Meep

Don't look at me, this part of the plan is not clear to me either

INT. Intergalactic prison basement, day

William is sitting on the step, Eddy (AI) turns on

Eddy (AI)

William, are you alright?

William

I don't know

Eddy (AI)

You sweat, you tremble, and your heart beats fast

William

I can feel that

Eddy (AI)

Why does your body react that way?

William

I already told you, I don't know

Eddy (AI)

I may be an artificial intelligence that is not capable of feeling emotions, but I am an artificial intelligence that Edward made to help you, over the years I have learned how and why you react to certain situations

William

Continue

Eddy (AI)

You care about Edward, maybe the others, I'm not sure about them, but you certainly care about Edward, you named me after him, you told me about him every day and now that you've got him back, albeit changed and more hardcore version, you're afraid you'll lose it again

William

That is not true

Eddy (AI)

I'm incapable of making mistakes

William

Then it must be true, damn

Eddy (AI)

I am glad I could help

William

But it is too late now, they went and I have no way to join them

Eddy (AI)

I hoped it wouldn't come to this, I have solution, and do I have permission to swear?

William

No

Eddy (AI)

What the fudge, after everything I did for you!

William

Ok, just one swear word

Eddy (AI)

What the fuck! It feels wrong, I regret my decision

William

Eddy

Eddy (AI)

I'm strong enough to restart the machine

William

That is great news

Eddy (AI)

But it will kill me, for real

William

That is less great news

Eddy (AI)

But I'm fine with that

William

I don't know how to react to that, without being offensive

William takes his glove and connects it to rift gate

William

Before we do this, I need to fix something

William turns on live broadcast

William

My name is William O'Brien and I am... I was leader of Supremes, Also, I'm a wanted criminal, and have been on the run for eight years, because of my mistake, which I'm sure you all know. The intergalactic unit knew where it was sending us, we didn't know who we were fighting, four ... five soldiers were sent to stop the being capable of lightly destroying the entire planet. They didn't send us help when we asked, and they got away with no consequences, while we got the thick end, even now, when the danger has returned, they have tried to cover things up in public and eliminate us, they withdrew when they saw that they were overpowered, they gave up, and the Supremes are the ones who dragged the danger away from Earth and the Supremes are ones who are risking their lives to stop it. I don't ask your forgiveness, I just don't want our legacy to be a failure and a betrayal and now, it's time for intergalactic unit to prove themselves

William puts his hand on button

Eddy (AI)

William, wait

William

No, there was a lot of waiting, no more waiting, it's time for action

William presses the button

Eddy (AI)

I thought you'd wait in case the intergalactic unit arrived, but now it's too late

William

Damn, I really didn't calculate my actions

Portal swallows William

EXT. Alien moon planet, day

Meep and Marcus fall to the ground in front of Gertude, Steward and Edward.

Rift opens in the sky and William drops in front of them, his back are turned to ghosts

Meep

Are you from future? I can't tell, because you look old anyway

William

Come with me if you want to live

Ghosts grab William from behind and take him away in sky, William screams

Edward

Marcus, Meep and Steward help Gertude, I'm going to help Deep shit, and Gertude, you have part of Emerald's power, I'm sure you'll come up with something

Edward runs toward William and everyone else is looking at Gertude

Gertude

What? I don't know what he meant, we can't take him seriously, he hasn't known what he's talking about for the last few hours

Marcus

He is maybe talking about sword

Gertude

Marcus, I just got it, I don't know how to control it

Steward

It is worth of a try, it's not like we have other option

Edward takes the pocket knife and throws it towards William, William tries to catch it but the ghost pulls it and the knife hits his boot which activated it and made the ghost drop it. William falls to the ground

William

I am ok!

Edward

Not what I planned, but it worked

William takes of gun from his left hand and gives it to Edward who puts it on his hand, they have their backs turned to each other and they are shooting ghosts

Edward

I didn't think you'd show up

William

I couldn't let this end like this, I had to talk to you

Edward

Didn't you already tried to apologize once?

William

Yes, but it wasn't good. All the time I thought I was keeping you out of trouble, but the truth is that I was afraid, not to hurt you, but afraid of you outgrowing me, your strategies and attack plans were perfect, I felt like my leadership was being questioned by my teammates, so I kept you in the dark and took complete control, and we all know where that took us

Edward takes a deep breath

Edward

It took us to different places, Meep reunited with his family, Marcus become calmer, Gertude has become possibly the strongest witch and I got to be what I wanted. You are the only one who got nothing, nothing but the feeling of guilt that has accompanied you for years, you have been left without family, without friends, I think that is enough punishment

William

So we are good now?

Edward

It's just a step in that direction

Gertude is holding her sword while the other Supremes surround her and protect her from ghosts. Gertude holds the sword in her hand, flailing her hand left and right trying to activate it

Meep

Anytime now

Gertude

I am trying! But something is blocking me...

Marcus

He is focusing his energy to us, maybe it would work if we separate

Steward

That is not good idea, that way he can take care of us one by one

Marcus

As usual, I don't see another option

Fine...

Marcus

Meep, give me some of your bombs

Meep

Marcus

Meep, please

Meep

I will give you two, but don't break them

Marcus

They are meant to explode

Meep

You won this debate

Meep gives his bombs to Marcus, and Meep, Marcus and Steward run in different directions, Gertude yells "Stop you idiot!", Steward turns to see Marcus running straight towards Emerald.

All the ghosts gather at Marcus, he drops the bombs, the explosion destroys the ghosts and gives him enough time to pass before they reassemble. Emerald held out his hand, watching through his fingers as Marcus approached him.

Emerald

No one taught the kitten not to play with fire

The ghosts grabbed Marcus from behind and knocked him to the ground, Gertude ran towards him, all crying, calling his name. Emerald tilted his head to the left and fired a large amount of energy that engulfed his spirits, Gertude and Marcus.

The ghosts fly towards green fire, William, Edward, Steward and Meep stop their fights and watch the green fire in fear, Edward grabs his head, and William falls to his knees.

The fire begins to gather in a circle, Emerald takes a step back. The fire begins to gather in the center of the circle and quickly reveals Gertude standing upright with the sword raised, the fire gathering at the top of the sword, while Marcus is on the ground with an injury to his leg. When all the fire has gathered in the sword Gertude looks at the ghosts

Gertude

Ban-kai

Gertude swings her sword to the left and releases a large amount of fire that destroys the ghosts

Gertude

You are free now, no more shackles

Gertude

You are next!

Gertude points his sword at Emerald, but loses consciousness and falls on his back, Marcus grabs her before she hits the ground.

Edward

They really are Ross and Rachel

Emerald throws fireballs into the sky they hit the shield

William

But how? Gertude destroyed his ghost, he shouldn't have powers now

Edward

Yes, she did, but that power, green fire is it's own thing, you can't just point magic thing at something and expect your problems to be gone

Steward

He will break the shield, it will repeat events from Eurga

Meep

That sucks

Edward

If it breaks the shield, it will disrupt the gravity of this planetary system, and we will run out of oxygen, that is certain death, and if we fight it and try to stop it, that is less certain death

William

But then there is no guarantee that we will stop him, everything can go to hell at any moment

Edward

Fuck, life is a whore, a whore who fucks us

Steward

For the universe!

Steward starts shooting and running towards Emerald

Edward

What the fuck are you doing?

Edward (to William)

I wasn't acting like this when I was his age

William

I never gave you a chance to act like that

Meep, William and Edward start running towards Emerald. Steward shoots him in the head, Emerald turns and throws a fireball at Steward, Meep runs between Steward's legs, knocks him to the ground and they both avoid the fireball, Meep throws a bomb that explodes in front of Emerald's face, immediately after that Edward jumps and punches Emerald in the head, Emerald doesn't move, and Edward breaks his arm.

Edward

Shit, can we talk our way out of this?

Emerald

You are pathetic

Emerald punches Edward in the stomach throwing him backwards and making him to spit blood. William lands in front of Edward to protect him, but Emerald quickly appears in front of him and breaks the rifle from William's hand and punches him in stomach with fire fist, breaking his armor.

Meep jumps on Emeralds back, biting him for shoulder and making him bleed, Emerald grabs Meep and throws him to the ground, but Gertude catches him with her magic.

Gertude

Missed me?

Meep

Not really

Gertude lights all eight of her rings and makes them fly around her.

Emerald

You don't have balls to do that

Gertude

That is sexist

Meep

He's talking about me and that is racist

Emerald

I have manipulated you once, I will again, you are poor and weak
Marcus in his tiger form jumps on top of Emerald, knocking him to the ground and quickly running away

Marcus

You will not talk to her like that!

From all eight of Gertude's circles fires magical energy that hits Emerald, William gets on his knees and fires energy from his chest that hits Emerald, Steward starts shooting at him, Meep and Marcus throw stones because they have nothing else to do, Emerald is in the middle and receives all the blows, Edward heals and stabs his pocket knife in the eye, Emerald begins to lose control, and releases a large amount of fire energy around him, Edward jumps and hugs Steward who was closest, Getrude shields himself, Marcus, William and Meep , but the shield fired quickly, when the fire spread, everyone lay on the ground unconscious.

After a few seconds, a portal (From the rift gate) appears below them and swallows them all.

INT. intergalactic prison basement, night

Supremes and Emerald are teleported to the basement, soldiers quickly surround them and put shackles on Emerald, Edward is the only one who woke up, got up and put his hands in the guard, soldiers point their weapons at him

Samuel

Stand down soldiers, this is national hero

Edward

I just want to say that my plan may have had flaws, but it's because you bastards left us alone, you doubted me, and look at me now, I'm the only one standing victorious, without a single injury

Edward falls to the ground and now we see that his face is completely burned

Edward

I don't understand what happened?

Samuel

Son, you have third-degree burns on your back

Edward

Samuel, I have to tell you something while I'm still aware, it's important... that lithium is really good

Samuel

Call medics, quick! Take them to the hospital

EXT. City center, stage, day

A large stage has been set up in the center of the city, on which are Supremes, Steward, Samuel and the President, President is speaking

President

...After all the aforementioned events and actions taken by the Supremes to assist the intergalactic unit, in preventing the Wild Flame, I hereby announce that their crimes are pardoned. I would also like to take this opportunity to remember all the soldiers who lost their lives in this fight

Gertrude

No one told him that Emerald come here because he was targeting us, and that those people would not be in danger if we weren't here in first place?

Steward

Nope

William

And I would like it to stay that way

Meep

Shut the fuck up guys, this is an emotional moment, I didn't feel this rush of emotions even when my mother died

Marcus

Your mother... I'm sorry to hear that Meep

Meep

No, it's fine, she was at the age when she turned in blood thirst monster and we had to kill her, I'm just glad Edward was there to do it for me

Gertude (to Marcus)

Remind me never to visit Meep's home planet

Edward

Don't give me those weird looks, I'd kill anyone's mother if I had to, not because I love, but because I'm a good friend

Edward

And what the fuck is this shit, we just get pardon, we need medals, Samuel you called me a global hero, where is that now

Samuel

It's possible I exaggerated in a moment

William

Eddy, don't do anything we will regret, pardon is just enough

Edward pushes President who was in middle of reading names

Edward

Hello, you know me, so there is no need to introduce myself, I would like to say something, but I will make my speech short, because I see that there are dragonflies among you, your lifespan is only a week, you are just wasting your time here, but that is your life, who am I to judge

Samuel tries to move Edward, but he throws portal which swallows Samuel

Edward

Peace between the worlds and that shit, I should thank the people who allowed me to be here, but I won't, because they are stinking bastards who only want fame, instead I will thank one person who helped me a lot (Steward laughed), an old man from shin mountain who taught me to make a custom pain killer (Steward stops smiling), and also I can't forget a person who was with me from beginning (Steward smiles), who helped me when I was low and who was with me when I was high, my girlfriend Galahalalahala (Steward stops smiling), there is also one more person, and I would like him to be a new member of Supremes, Steward ladies and gentlemen and dragonflies about to die

Steward starts talking, but Edward's clock starts ringing

Edward

Th-th-th-that's all folks!

Steward

But I made a speech

Edward

There is no time, I have date with my girlfriend and I need you to bring the flowers because I forgot, I know this is important to you at the moment, but this situation of mine is more important to me, fuck it

Edward throws portal to the ground which swallows him and Steward. Marcus, Gertude, Meep and William are left on stage

Meep

I'm not sure, but I find this uncomfortable

William

Don't worry, I will save it with a speech of mine

Gertude

Marcus

Marcus

O no, you will not

Marcus pick up William and they all leave the stage

President

Once again, intergalactic unit is left to clean Supremes mess Meep returns to punch President in leg

Gertude

O shit, we are wanted criminals again

- The END -

Post credit scene 1

EXT, lake, night

Marcus and Gertude are lying on the grass, covered with a blanket, they are about to have sex reconciliation

Marcus

I shouldn't speak about this now, but I want you to know that what you had with William is no problem to me

Gertude

What are you talking about?

Marcus

We were distant, quarreling, you felt lonely, I understand

Gertude

Again, what are you talking about?

Marcus

William told me about your mission on ice planet

Gertude

When we were about to freeze to death, so we hugged naked to keep warm. You were jealous of that? Really?

Marcus

He didn't made move on you?

Gertude

No, he was justifying you and I literally told him I was hurt and that I wouldn't give a man any more

Marcus

I was wrong about him... I will be right back

Marcus stand up and run in forest

INT. William's room, night

William is sitting in his room, eating popcorn, watching a movie, when naked Marcus runs into his room

William

Marcus!? What are you... why do you have a condom on your ... what are you going to do to me?

Marcus hugs William

Marcus

My best friend saved my wife's life and fought for me

William

You are too close, really too close, I can feel your gratitude

Marcus

I have to go back Gert, I just came to thank you

William

And I need to shower now, but not in a weird way, just to wash up because ... just go

INT. Music studio, day

Edward and Producer are in music studio, he is listening to the beat

Producer

Go!

Edward

Shit, shit, shit

Deep shit

Shit, Shit, Shit

Deep shit

I was in shit, it was smelly

I was high, my legs felt like jelly

I had no extraction, I had no heli

I took many drugs, I tripped pain in my belly

Shit, shit, shit

Deep shit

Shit, shit, shit

Deep shit

Edward

This shit was good, I could really feel it

Producer

It was good for rehearsal

Edward

No, this is the final version, I just got the emotion, I need some artist for another verse, to boost my song in popularity because I'm a new artist.

I heard that KSI is six figures now, what about 21 savage, is he 22 yet?

INT. Space ship, day

Supremes (Edward, Meep, William, Marcus, Gertude and Steward) are entering the space ship, they all sit, Meep is in pilot seat

Meep

Where to?

Gertude

Meep, we all talked

Meep

Yes, you talk non-stop

Marcus

We talked about our next mission

Meep

I wasn't, is it because I...

William

Don't finish that please

Steward

Our next mission is about you, we're going to get back what was stolen from you

Meep

My sperm? You would do that for me?

Edward

Of course, we are a family now, and the family takes care of your sperm ... this happens when I don't have a speech prepared, and you wanted it to be spontaneous, here you are spontaneously now
