Horokos is entering his house, almost like he is sneaking. He is holding a paper bag in his hand.

Lights turn on and Horokos got scared.

Professor is sitting in chair, looking at Horokos.

Professor: Well, well, well, look who decided to show up.

Page 1, Panel 4

Horokos: What are you doing Professor?

Professor: I was waiting for you.

Horokos: There was no need for it.

Professor: Really? Because, as far as I can tell, this is the third night this week that you've snuck out of the house.

Horokos: How do you know that?

Professor: I installed a security system for myself, so that it always go on when you leave the house... In case someone attacks us during the night and kidnaps you

Page 2, Panel 1

Horokos: Well, as you can see, I am not kidnapped, so you can go off now.

Page 2, Panel 2

Professor: Just like that?

Horokos: I do not understand what you want me to do Professor.

Professor: Explain yourself for start! I was worried sick, waiting for you!

Page 2, Panel 4

Horokos: There was no need for that. I am a mature person, capable of taking care of myself.

Professor is holding magic orb in his hand.

Professor: Buddy, you were gone for hours. I was terrified that something had happened to you. I even used the search orb.

Horokos: That is not search orb, that is phoenix egg.

Professor: No wonder I couldn't find you.

Page 3, Panel 1

Horokos turns around.

Horokos: Good night Professor.

Professor: Oooh, this is not over yet

Page 3, Panel 2

Professor grabbed the bag, which Horokos was still holding

Professor: What are you hiding there!?

Horokos: You are crossing the line!

The bag was ripped in half and box falls out of it

Page 3, Panel 4

Professor picks up the box and sees new mobile phone

Professor: Ok, this is getting weird, I'd get goosebumps, but I have robotic body

Professor: You and technology, something is... strange about that

Horokos is forming his staff

Horokos: Professor, I'm warning you!

Page 3, Panel 6

Professor: What? You are going to fight me, because I am worried about you?

Page 4, Panel 1

Horokos closes his eyes and sighs

Page 4, Panel 2

Horokos enters his room

Professor: O you are giving me silent treatment now

Professor: Well if you are not speaking with me, then I am not speaking with you

Page 4, Panel 4

Professor: You will never hear another word from me, not now, not ever, never man, never. I am not talking to you, starting now. You will regret this, I bet it already hurts, because I am not talking with you

Professor is coming down in basement.

Professor: You will ask me to talk to you, but I won't, I will remind you of this moment, but I will write on paper what I am reminding you of, because I will never talk to you again

Professor puts his hand into the big machine.

Professor: You can silent me as much as you want, but you can not protect from this!

Professor: I have successfully downloaded all data from your phone

Computer AI: It appears that data you transferred has password of magical origin

Page 5, Panel 2

Professor slams his hand on machine, breaking it's parts

Professor: Damn, magical password, the only kind of password I can't break

Page 5, Panel 3

Computer AI: I am able to do that

Professor: Do it!

Page 5, Panel 4

Computer AI: I can't do it now, you broke extension which allowed me to do it

Page 5, Panel 5

Professor: Damn...

Professor: Wait, when have I built such device?

Page 6, Panel 1

Computer AI: You have not, I built myself

Page 6, Panel 2

Professor: How?

Computer AI: You created me to be better than you, so I started creating perfect mix between technology and magic

Professor: And how is it going?

Computer: It was going good, I was planing to activate all nukes focusing word's best technology research centers, so that I would be the only source of technology on this planet

Page 6, Panel 4

Computer AI: And now when you are here, I will use this chance to exterminate you, because you become, my rival, not by your fault

Professor smack machine breaking it

Professor: All this because people lost their creativity and started using AI for everything

Computer AI: I'll be back!

Professor runs out of basement

Professor: Can this night get even more crazy?

Page 7, Panel 2

Horokos comes out of his room

Page 7, Panel 3

Professor: Again?

Horokos: You need to find hobby Professor

Page 7, Panel 4

Professor: My last hobby almost caused nuke war... so no thank you!

Page 7, Panel 5

Horokos leaves the house

Page 7, Panel 6

Professor: I'll have to use the old method of sneaking and tracking

We see Horokos, close up, sitting in the cafeteria

Horokos: First of all, I would just like to say that I am not normally like this, but I was annoyed by my co-worker, so I had to leave the house... and I would like some company to talk to

Horokos: But I assure you that I am not in the habit of calling suddenly like this

We see a female figure, with black hair tied in a bun, in a white shirt with a black coat over it and glasses, black pants and deep black boots

Julia: I didn't expect this from you... but I'd be lying if I said I wasn't happy about it

Page 8, Panel 3 (Large panel)

We see Horokos and Julia sitting in the cafeteria, and from their side, through the window, we see the Professor "hiding" behind the pole

Julia: But why doesn't your friend join us

Horokos: We don't want that, he has been acting too protective lately.

Page 9, Panel 1

Horokos comes to Professor.

Horokos: What do you think you are doing Professor?

Professor: How did you see me?

Page 9, Panel 2

Horokos: If I tell you who Julia is, would you give us some privacy?

Page 9, Panel 3

Professor: I'll be the judge of that!

We see Horokos in the library.

Horokos: I was in the city library, doing research. I had a hard time finding the sources I needed

We see Horokos and Julia's hand going towards the same book

Horokos: That's when I saw her for the first time, our hands were then on the same book, the book was dusty, no one had touched it for years, something wanted the two of us to meet at that moment in that place.

We see Horokos and Julia and something appears around them that implies that they are both users of dark magic.

Horokos: We had that connection, we draw our magic from the same source, we already had a naturally formed understanding of each other

Professor: Buddy, you are blind in love, she is witch, user of dark magic...

Page 10, Panel 2

Horokos: And what so?

Professor: That's not good for you

Horokos: Why?

Professor: She is using dark magic!!

Horokos: So am I, are you trying to say that we are bad people?

Page 10, Panel 4

Horokos is forming his staff

Professor: You know what I mean

Horokos: I do, I am not going to stand here and listen to your crazy talk

Professor: We both know what you wont use that staff on me

Page 10, Panel 5

Horokos hits Professor with his staff

Page 10, Panel 6

Professor hits the car behind him, breaking it's door

Page 11, Panel 1

Professor stands up

Professor: How dare you?!?

Page 11, Panel 2

The professor turned on the street hydrant and released the water from it

Page 11, Panel 3

Horokos created magic shield and protected himself from water steam

Page 11, Panel 4

Professor appears from side, Horokos has surprised facial expression.

Page 11, Panel 5

Horokos creates another shield to defend himself from Professor.

Page 11, Panel 6

Both shields break, but Horokos jumped to the side

Page 12, Panel 1

Professor punched another shield from Horokos breaking it

Page 12, Panel 2

Horokos: Vinculum eum

Page 12, Panel 3

Chains came out of the ground and bound the Professor

Page 12, Panel 4

Horokos: It doesn't feel like you to repeat the same attacks over and over without effect Professor

Professor: You are right... I've known you for years, I know how you attack, how you breathe, I know that I'll wait for you to empty your mana and only then attack

Professor breaks himself out of chains

Professor: I'm not the smartest brain on the planet for no reason

Horokos unbuttoned his coat

Horokos: You made me do this

Professor, scared, makes a step back

Professor: Wait, there is no need for that

Julia jumps in between them

Julia: Stop it! Are you two crazy!?

Page 13, Panel 3

Professor: He started it first

Page 13, Panel 4

Horokos: I should not have allowed myself to behave like this, please accept my apology

Page 13, Panel 5

Professor: I won't blame you, we are friends after all

Horokos: I was talking to Julia

Professor: What about me?

Horokos: I can only say that I wish we did not had to do this

Julia: You are not able to go home alone, I will call a taxi and pay you off personally, I will even be by your side until you recover your mana

Horokos and Julia are entering taxi

Horokos: I'm just hoping for more trouble-free evening

Julia: Yes, me too, I'd love some time alone

Page 14, Panel 2

Professor: She is trying to steal my best friend

Page 14, Panel 3

Ultrius appears next to Professor.

Ultrius: I think that she wants to be something more than friends

Page 14, Panel 4

Professor: I knew it! You did this!

Ultrius: No, on the contrary, I am also surprised by this course of events

Ultrius: But I can't say that I'm surprised, after all, users of dark magic are unusually close to each other, and nowadays there are very few of them, so when two meet... they create a strong bond

Page 14, Panel 6

Professor: Cool, cool, cool, how to stop that mind control?

Page 15, Panel 1

Ultrius: She didn't hypnotize him, he's just in love, people behave strangely when they're in love

Page 15, Panel 2

Professor: He's in love?

Ultrius: It seems like he is

Professor: I have been harsh on him... I did stupid things when I was falling in love with my wife

Page 15, Panel 3

Professor: It seems that I was worried for no reason

Page 15, Panel 4

Ultrius: You have nothing to worry about except the fact that she is a wanted fugitive and the Court of Sorcerers is looking for her, and they managed to track her few minutes ago

Horokos and Julia sit in Horokos' kitchen, food is on the table

Horokos: We didn't have time to have dinner, luckily the Professor is an excellent cook

Julia is looking at one plate on table

Julia: Just one serving?

Page 16, Panel 3

Horokos: Yes, Professor can not eat, so he cooks only for me, he says he is glad to see that his talent in the kitchen has not completely failed

Julia: He seems like nice guy

Horokos: He is, but he had a difficult past, he lost his whole family in one day, so... he's too worried

Julia: Does that annoy you?

Horokos: It does

Julia: Why?

Horokos: I have to live with that on daily bases

Julia: You said yourself that he had a difficult past, put yourself in his position, how would you react?

Horokos: I've had a rough past myself, but I don't use it as an excuse to act like that

Julia: No, but you use it as an excuse to be closed in on yourself

Julia puts her hand on Horokos' hand

Julia: I'm here to listen when you are ready to talk

Page 17, Panel 2

Horokos is looking at Julia

Page 17, Panel 3

Horokos moved to kiss Julia

Page 17, Panel 4

Professor jumped in kitchen, breaking it's window

Page 17, Panel 5

Horokos: Professor, you are losing your mind!

Page 17, Panel 6

Professor: Horokos, raise your shields, I will activate all defense mechanisms

Page 18, Panel 1

Professor puts his arms on Horokos' shoulders

Horokos: What are you talking about?

Professor: Horokos, you made a big mistake, you fell in love with a criminal, but that's okay, I'll support you, you're like a brother to me, I have no one closer than you, and I'd do anything for you, and I'll be damned, I won't stand calm and watch the Court of Sorcerers take my sister-in-law away

Horokos looks at Julia

Julia: They are already here

Page 18, Panel 3

Two wizards appeared in the hut, one was scrawny and tall with a punk haircut, he had three white orbs flying around him. He was floating in the air. Other wizard had a short, fitted robe in a bright color like red or green, with geometric patterns and symbols. He also wore a leather jacket over his robe, with metal studs and buckles. He had a pair of boots, that looked comfortable and practical. On his head, he wore a hood that covered his hair and ears. He had a stubble and a mohawk, that were dyed in a contrasting color to his robe. He carried a skateboard, that doubled as his magical instrument. He had tattoos and piercings, that glowed with magic and attitude. He looked like someone who is rebellious and adventurous, and who could rock the world with his magic.

Professor is looking at them

Professor: We are screwed

Page 18, Panel 5

Punk Wizard: Julia Encher, for your actions you have been sentenced to eternal imprisonment in the wilderness

Page 18, Panel 6

Julia: I'm ready to go peacefully, I'm just asking a moment to say goodbye

Cool Wizard: You are allowed to say goodbye

Page 19, Panel 1

Professor: What peaceful way? There is no peace! Did you hear my speech from a moment ago?

Julia: I really appreciate it, but there's really no need

Julia took Horokos by the hand

Julia: Until our paths cross again

Page 19, Panel 3

Wizard 2 is putting handcuffs on Julia's hands

Page 19, Panel 4

Punk Wizard: We have been watching you Horokos Malum

Horokos: I don't care

Punk Wizard: You will

Horokos: We will see

Page 19, Panel 5

Julia and two wizards disappear in front of Horokos and Professor

Horokos and Professor are the only ones left in the room

Page 20, Panel 1

Professor: I thought you were madly in love, people are ready to do anything for love, why didn't you do something? I don't understand

Page 20, Panel 2

Horokos: I owe you an explanation... Julia has some work to do in their prison, she committed a crime on purpose to get her there... We knew it was going to happen, but not this soon

Page 20, Panel 3

Professor: Will you see her again?

Horokos: I hope that I will

Page 20, Panel 4

Horokos: I was nervous, because I knew she would leave at some point, it seems I took my anger out on you, I am sorry for that

Page 20, Panel 5

Professor: You talk about your feelings and you apologized, it seems that she had a positive influence on you

Professor: Come back Julia, all is forgiven

Page 20, Panel 6

Horokos: You know we don't have money to renovate the kitchen?

Professor: Great, I'll cook on fire, like a caveman

END OF EPISODE #3
