

Cosmic Force - Sand Village [Final script]

Desert village. Father (Kamor) is helping old woman with fixing her window, one man is sitting in front of his house, next to house of older woman.

Older woman: Thank you so much Kamor, sand was getting in.

Kamor: I'm glad I could help, If you had told me earlier about the broken window, I would come right away.

Older woman: I didn't wanted to bother you, I know you're busy making a water tower.

Kamor: I am, but after we finish that, we will have supplies of water that will help our gardens and animals.

Perak (guy who was watching them): I heard what you said and I still can not believe how much you have a high opinion of yourself, according to your words, this village would not function without you.

Kamor: No, I did not say that, I was just...

Perak: Just what, Kamor, you should know your place, you are just a regular villager, you do your thing, and let protector do the rest

Older woman: Go away, he is doing something to help others, while you sit and do nothing all day!

Perak (angry answer)

Perak: I am helping others, by doing my job, garding gate.

Perak walks away.

Older woman: Don't listen to him...

Kamor: He migh be right

Komor is talking with old protector in old protector's house (house is better looking then Komor's house, which is shown later).

Komor: I want to do a lot more, I want to make a better life in this village so that my children, when they grow up, could have a better life than we have, but I feel limited, with materials, water source, when you become Protector, flowers gifted you with earh bending, you build a wall around village, protecting us from sand storms, our fields are protected and we have much more food now, if I could do at least part of what you did for this village, for villagers.

Old protector: I understand what you want to say, and I see where your thinking comes from, but as the flower has a good side, it also has a bad, if it senses a scourge of evil in you, the consequences could be fatal for your mind and body.

Komor: I know that, I believe that my intentions are pure.

Old protector: You will have chance to prove yourself.

Small house, family of four is eating dinner, Mamil, Revul, their father and mother.

Small wooden table, with little food on it, candle in middle for light, lanterns on the walls, damaged walls.

Komor: Is everything ready for tomorrow?

Mother: It is

Mamil: Dad, you look worried, is everything okay?

Revul: what are you talking about Mamil, our dad is next protector, of course he's okay

Komor: I'm fine Mamil, I'm just tired and tomorrow is big day, I need to rest now

Mamil: Dad, what kind of power will flower give you?

Komor: I don't know, for generations flowers gave different powers, the current protector can bend sand, there is no way to predict that and we don't know will they accept to give me that power

Revul: Ooo, you would look cool with lava based powers or maybe turn your body into steel or even better run really fast

Komor: Hahaha, I have to confess, that powers are "cool", Mamil, what do you think

Mamil: I don't care what powers you got, as long as they keep you safe

Revul and Mamil are in their room, getting ready to sleep, Revul can't sleep and he is talking, Mother is trying to put him to sleep

Again small room, with just two beds next to other and one window

Revul: Entire village will see my father becoming next protector tomorrow

Mother: Yes, please go to sleep

Revul: I'll be in front, right next to the garden fence

Mother: If you don't go to sleep now, I will not be able to wake you in the morning and miss the ceremony

Mamil: Mom, will dad be home if he becomes protector?

Mother: I know that you are worried honey, protector is important to this village, only the noble ones get this chance, it's a lifetime opportunity, your dad got it and can not refuse it

Mamil: I am scared mom, I don't want anything bad to happen to dad

Mother: It's normal to be worried, but flowers will protect your dad, I'm taking care about flowers, I understand what kind of power it has, If you feel better, after the ceremony, you can help me in the garden

Mamil: I will

Revul: I know that your job is to protect the flowers, but being protector is way better

Mamil: but the protector would not get his power if the flower is not well-grown, gardener has important job too

Revul: Be she doesn't have powers

Mamil: power are not important, it's important what kind of person gets them

Mom: your two can argue all night, but you have to sleep

Mamil: Tell as a story

Mom: fine, which one would you like me to tell you

Revul: the story of the Cosmic Force of course

Mamil: She tells us that story every night

Mom: Do you want to hear other story?

Mamil: Yes, I would like to hear story about our village

Mom: Revul is it ok with you?

Revul: Sure

Mom: centuries ago, there was a fighter of a pure heart, The Gods gave him eternal life, for years, he used this gift to help people, but not all he helped deserved it, his friend,

Takija, watched him for years and admired his power. Greed has overcome Takija, he wanted eternal life for himself, when Gods refused to give him power, he turned to Demons, they gifted him with flame of death, but it twisted his body, it made him in dragon like creature. Protector and Takija had a fight that lasted for a couple of days, at the end, power of demons defeated the Protector. Takija started absorbing power of eternity, Protector did not want the power of gods to fall in demon hands, he sacrificed his life to stop Takija.

From the blood of the first Protector, flowers were born, and village was build around flowers, flowers protected village for generations, giving warriors of pure hearth extraordinarily powers.

Next day, Father, Mother and Old protector and two new characters (Thunderman and Megawatt) are standing in the garden, in midle of the garden is small fire place, villagers are watching them (outside the garden, behind the fence), Mamil and Revul are standing there, close to garden gate, Perak is there too, Thunderman and Megawatt are there

Revul: two Members of Cosmic Force came too

Mamil: current protector is member of that group, new protector will take his place, that's why they are here

Revul: What are they waiting for?

Mamil: they are preparing for ceremony, in order to see if chosen one is worthy of this power, they have to put flower in fire, if choseon one isn't worthy, flower wont burn, if he is worthy, flower will burn and release it's energy

Revul: That's boring part!

Komor kneel before Old Protector, mother gets ready to pick up flower for Komor, dark cloud appeared blocking the sun, strong wind started, flowers quickly grew thorns

Old Potector: I've never seen anything like this happening before

Mother: Thorns appeared on the flowers

Kamor: What does that means?

Mother: It seems like flowers is protecting themselfs

Komor noticed that old protector is looking at him (worried facial expression)

Old protector: We have angered the Gods

Komor (to old protector): Is it... Do you think it has something to do with me becoming new protector?

Old protector: That's for sure, I just do not know if they are trying to warn you about something or to protect themselves from you

Komor: You said, if the flower sees danger in me, it would kill me during the ceremony, and you know that, you warned me when I asked you for permission

Old protector: I saw three protectors before me, flowers never behave like this

Komor turns to his wife

Komor: You work on gardner, you know the flowers, please tell me, have I done something wrong?

Mother: I do not know, since I was a child, I helped my mother in the garden, she taught me everything she knows, flowers always found a way to show when something was wrong, but it never behaved like this Old protector: The fires of the flower are not to be trifled without care. We must respect the flower...and fear it."

Old protector: ceremony will not happen until we discover the significance of this

Scared of what is happening with flowers and dissapointed in himslef, he began to question his decisions

Mother, Mamil, Revul and old protector are standing in garden, looking at father and old protector

Mamil is thinking about what her father told her - "being a protector does not mean only protecting our village, but all that we can"

Mamil (for herself): It can't be his fault, I belive in his pure heart

Revul is sitting on a garden fence, he is confused, as mush as his father is, Komor is hero in Revul's eyes

Old protector: Komor, calm down

Revul turns and sees his father, he never saw him like that, tears in his eyes, he always saw him as strong person, someone who could never be hurt

Komor: Calm down!?! I can't after this, I dedicated my whole life to helping this village and everyone in it, and now you are saying that I caused a problem that nobody knows how to solve

Their conversation was interuped with dark gey rift opening in the skay, from rift, huge dragon comes out, green fire was burning in his mouth

Thunderman (in background): Things are complicated, we need an evacuation ship!
Fast!

Old protector: O God, I saw this creature in books before, he is Takija

Mother: Flowers tried to warn us

Takija flew directly to garden

Old protector and Komor was running to stop him

Mamil: Dad! Don't go!

Mother takes her children by the hand and put them in the house

Thunderman and Megawatt fly in different directions, taking people away from garden

Old protector: If you want to be protector of Oridhan. You must save its people.

Komor and Old protector split ways, Komor running to open market place

Old protector put his hands on ground, making giant sand hands who covered the dragon, but dragon blow sand hands with his wings, he shoots few fireballs in old protector

Old protector got hit with one fire ball, he tried to defend himself with sand wall he build just before fireball hit it, but blast was too strong, old protector hit the house wall behind him

Other fireball hit near the open market place, fire started spreading, villagers was still there, some menaged to escape, but two of them were traped, one of them is Perak, fire suranded them

Komor: Careful!

Komor (to himself): Damm, fire is to strong, I can't go thre

He looks at water tower

Komor: Water source! I can channel this water

He runs to water tower, he opened the tower and breaks it's pillar (water tower wasn't finished, he needed pillars to hold him, after Komor broke one pillar, towers lost balance and felt, spilling it's water on fire), managing to put fire down, not completely, but freed the passage for people who were trapped inside, he returned to two villagers, Perak is holding his friend, their face was smoky with smoke, they had burns on their hands, friend was unconscious, Komor and Perak picked him up and took him out of the place where they were traped.

Komor saw Takija, who was going to Garden

Komor: Oh no, (turns to Perak) Get him out of here, he needs medical help

Perak: Don't leave me! You are supposed to protect us, not to abandon Komor: Would you rather fight this dragon!?

Perak says nothing

Komor: Perak, look at me, you can do it, you must do it, dragon will destroy the whole village if I do not stop him, I need you to move villagers away

Perak lifts his friend and puts him on his back

Komor took a wooden pole and started running towards Takija

Mother (still in house with kids): We have to go!

Mamil: But dad is still there

Mother: Mamil we don't have time, dad is giving us time, we have to run

Revol (sees the fire out the window): He needs help

Revol runs out of house, Mamil and Mother started running, following him

Komor is standing behind Takija, he is scared, he knows that there is no chance of winning this fight, but he wants to buy as much time as possible, so the villagers and his family can escape

Komor: Takija!

Takija turns around and sees him

Komor: As protector of this village I challenge you demon

Takija: Protector? I already killed one, what makes you think you can defeat me?

Komor: With help from Gods

Takija: Fool, where was Gods when I killed other one, they won't help you now, they know how much humanity is toxic, they turned back to you, I saw many worlds, and I found out, there is no pure hearth, in every single one I only encountered hatred and selfishness, everyone was fighting to protect themselves

Komor: I stand in front of you, fighting for the village, and you are telling me that you only encountered selfishness

Takija: Tell me, if I was attacking someone else, not this village, would you try to stop me

Komor says nothing

Takija: Speak human, would you care for the lives of other villages

Komor: I... I would

Takija: you doubted, I saw it in your eyes, your voice changed and your hands are shaking (he said with a smile on his face)

Let me tell you the truth, you wouldn't even care about them

Komor: Of course it is said by someone who sold the soul to the devil, someone who is not worth the eternal life

Their conversation is interrupted by the voice off screen "Father!"

Revul was standing a few meters away from them, Mother catches him from behind

Takija: Father?! Perfect, let's test your pure heart, you can choose now

He points at the evacuation ship in the sky

Takija: People who you swore to protect, or your son, your blood

Takija opens his mouth, the green fire burned in his mouth

Komor is in shock, if he chose his son, Takija is right, his whole life was a lie, he is no different than others who failed Protector's position

Takija: It is easy, you show me that Gods gave power to the wrong kind and I will spare your son's life

Komor looks at the ground, he struggles

Revul: Da... Dad...

Takija: I got the answer I needed

Takija turns to Revul, ready to burn him

Komor: Stop! Spare my son's life, please

Takija: You are not worthy of this power, you are weak and miserable

Takija punches Komor; Komor hits the ground, losing consciousness for a moment

Takija shots another fireball at Revul

Young Revul stares wide eyed as the blast closes in on him. The heat of the fireball so intense that it leaves a trail of molten glass in its wake. The mother screams, and young Mamil stands frozen in fear.

Mamil (Narration): I don't know what we did to anger it... All I know is it had one goal... To destroy us...

A loud CRACK! and a flash. The fireball dissipates as it is redirected away from the family. Standing between them and the dragon is a green hooded figure. The hooded figure's fists spark with power. Eventhough the wrist he used to block the fireball is burned and bleeding, he turns his head to Revul and winks.

Thunderman: Thanks for your help, little hero. I'll take it from here.

Mamil stares at the powerful man, the only thing standing between them and the unstoppable evil that is Takija.

Mamil (Narration): But amongst all the pain, I also saw true courage.

Thunderman readies himself and gets down on his knees.

Mamil (Narration): I've only heard stories about them. Stories of the Cosmic Force and their leader...

Mamil smiles and turns to her brother. A look of relief and determination on her face.

Mamil: It's Thunder-

Mamil blinks and Thunderman is no longer there. A powerful wind knocks Mamil off her feet as Thunderman moves at the speed of light towards the dragon. A lightning blade forms in the hero's hand as he commences his assault, slashing Takija's cheek. The beast writhes in pain, his powerful tail knocking over the watertower the family is hiding under. The mother looks up and screams as debris fall and the tower collapses, she holds on to Revul and closes her eyes.

Silence. Then the smoke clears.

Revul opens his eyes to see a giant lizard holding up the fallen tower.

Lizard: Grunt Okay! Time to leave, people!

Mother looks up to see the lizard as well and screams a second time at the sight of him.

Lizard (speaking into his headset): Boss, we'd better lure it away from here. It keeps acting up like that n' there won't be a village left.

Takija manages to grab Thunderman midflight and slam him into the side of a mountain.

Thunderman (speaking into headset): Cough I'll do what I can, but I think we're past that already. Get everyone onto a ship. I'll hold it off as long as I can-

Thunderman is cut short as the dragon slams him into the rocks again.

Thunderman goes past Takija drawing his attention away from kids, he helps Komor stands up

Thunderman: On your legs hero, we have people to protect, there is no time for rest

Komor looks at Thunderman, he lost hope

Komor: he's too strong, you have to protect my family

Thunderman: You will protect them when this is over

Thunderman and Komor charges at Takija, Takija grabs Komor by his troath, and stabs him in stomach with his tail

Revul: NOOOO

His voice craked, his eyes were full of tears

He tried to call for his father, but he wasn't able

Thunderman trows thunder at Takija, but it bearly had any effect on Takija, Takija trows Komor to the ground, Komor lost conscience

Thunderman went in the air, taking fight away from Komor

Back on the ground, Lizard picks up Revul and Mamil and begins the evacuation of survivors.

Lizard (to mother): Come with me! Evac ships this way!

Mother looks at her children in Lizards arms, then back at the garden in flames. She holds back tears.

Mother: Go. I need to do something.

She looks at Lizard trustingly and smiles for the last time at her children. She runs back into the garden and disappears in the flames.

Mamil: Mother!

Mother searches around the garden frantically, digging at the dirt in search of something. She pushes through the smoke and cinder, until she finally finds a flower that has not yet been damaged.

Back in the air, the great dragon continues battling Thunderman. Sparks surge across the dark skies as the hero commands the force of lightning, the only type of fire dragons fear.

Takija: You wield lightning as if you command it.

Thunderman points his lightning blade at the ancient demon before him.

Thunderman: And you're buying time as if you fear it.

Takija chuckles, the inhuman sound rumbling through the mountains like thunder. The great dragon looks down at the burning village. The survivors run through the smoke, trying to make their way to evacuation ships provided by the Cosmic Force.

Takija: You wish to save them. But know not of the sins they commit.

Thunderman: Whatever 'sin' they've committed, you're doing too splendid of a job of punishing them. So let's tone it down a bit.

Thunderman ignites his lightning blade and charges at the dragon.

Takija (chuckles): No. I'll take them all.

Takija pretends to lunge at the hero but instead changes direction halfway, darting straight at the ships leaving what remains of the village.

Thunderman: Stop!

Takija turns and midflight punches Thunderman in head, grabs him while he was falling, throws him to the ground and then steps on him with one leg

Takija: Should I admire your perseverance or fear your insanity?

Thunderman is in pain, he probably has a pair of broken ribs, has bruise on his eye and blood on his lip

Thunderman: Can you move your leg first, then we can talk about it

Takija laughed and steps harder on thunderman's chest

Thunderman screams in pain

Takija: You'll see how what you are fighting for disappears in flames

Takija takes Thunderman by the hood and drags him towards village

Back on the ground in the burning garden, the mother has the last remaining flower in her hand. She holds it close to her like a baby as she searches for a way out of the flames, her hands burn as she shields the flower from harm.

Seeing their mother in flames, the children escaped from Lizard's hug and run straight to the garden

Mamil: Mom!

Fire begins to grow, surrounding mother, closing every entrance, fire becomes that big, that she couldn't even see her children anymore, In the end, the fire swallowed her

Mamil and Revul, both went in fire, not thinking about them, only thing in their mind was saving their mother

Lizard knelt in front of the garden, he saw children walking in fire

Lizard: What have I done? I allowed these innocent children to burn?

Lizard screams/roars in anger, he turns and saw Takija walking towards the garden

Lizard: You monster! You will pay for this, I will make you suffer, just like you made all these people suffer

Takija (still walking towards Lizard): Anger is useful weapon, if you know how to control it

Takija throws Thunderman to the side, two reptiles started running towards each other, Takija grabs Lizard by neck and flew into the sky, Lizard is punching him, doing his best to free himself from the claws of demonic creature, but everything he did was useless. Takija slams Lizard to the ground, hits him with fists, until the lizard is no longer able to move. Rest of Cosmic Force tried to stop Takija, but he easily drops them, one by one

Takija: I've been waiting eternity for this, I have faced the greater dangers on my way, you are just small obstacle at the end

Komor returns consciousness, everything is blurry, he saw his team defeated on the ground, he stood up, his leg is injured, he can not walk properly.

Takija is in front of the garden, ready to step in

Takija: Finally, nothing stands between me and eternal power, I'll take what belongs to me

As he moves leg, ready to put his foot in garden, white-blue light from entire garden started gathering in one spot, fire disappears, showing big stone, Takija looks confused at the stone, stone started moving, revealing Revul's power; he was shielding his sister and mother, Mamil was changed to, her skin turned grey and eyes purples, Komor smiles seeing his children weeping external power; but his smile was interrupted, a quick realization that they are now in greater danger than ever, unable to get up, he used his hands, crawled over the sand, doing everything so he could get closer to the children

Takija (roars in rage): You should not be here!

Takija throws another fireball at them, Revul in panic blocked it forming stone shield around his arm, fireball hits shield throwing Revul to the ground, luckily not causing big damage to him and his sister

Takija (for himself, realizing that this two have absorbed power more power then Protector): two of them have absorbed the power of entire garden

Takija laughed, he looked at his children with his evil eyes

Takija: External power is now located in you two, it's just a little step back, power can still be mine

Takija spreads his wings and reaches his hand to take Revul and Mamil

Komor stabs Takijas leg, with broken metal pole, from behind

Takija kneels, Komor tries to past him, to get closer to kids, but because his leg was injured, he falls to the ground

Takija: I'm sick of you! what are you trying to prove? Stupid fool!

Takija with one hand holds Komor to the ground and with other holds Mamil and Revul

Mamil scared for Komor and Revul, she already thought she had lost them, she can't let same thing happen again

She stick her nails in Takija's hand, releasing poison, purple lines appeared on the dragon's hand, his grip was weakened, Revul used that opportunity, he created stone "sword/edge" around his arm, he jumps on Takija's leg (he was still kneeling on one leg) and jumps from that leg hitting Takija in face with his stone edge, Takija falls to his back, in that attack Revul's stone structure broke, and his arm gets injured, he injured it before when he shielded his sister from fireball, but thankfully, his attack had an effect, Takija was kneeling there unable to stand on one leg, poisoned and without one eye. He rises his wings and escaped in rift from which he came from.

Mamil runs to Komor, who was already badly injured from Takija's punch

Mamil: Stand up! please

Komor lying on the back, takes Mamil and Revul by the hand, and smiles

Komor: You two showed me what I was unable to see, I'm sorry for being bad father

Mamil, holds her father hand stronger, putting her forehead on it on it

Mamil: Dad, don't say that

Komor: I was blinded with wanting power, that much, that I almost chose power over my family....

Don't make same mistake I made... now is the great power in your hands, you are the last protectors....

Don't allow that to blind you, take care of each other

Komor closes his eyes, his arms lost strenght

Mamil: Dad! Dad!

Mother is in tears moving childrend away from Komor

Thunderman and Lizard come, Thunderman tried to fell Komor's pulse, but he was already dead, Thunderman looks at Lizard, then in kids

Thunderman: The evacuation ship is waiting for us, we will provide you with medical assistance there... and we will hold a funeral ceremony for Komor

Lizard pick up Komor's death body, Mother holds Mamil by the hand, and Thunderman pick up Revul

Last shot, Mamil and Revul is looking over destroyed village from window inside Cosmic Force evacuation ship

- The end -
